Ranking POWs charged

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Navy said today it had received misconduct charges filed by a former POW against two of the highest-ranking prisoners of war released by North Vietnam. The charges were mailed to the Navy secretary's office last week by Rear Adm. James B. Stockdale, 49, of Coronado, Calif. They arrived at the Pentagon today.

"The charges have been received and the people charged now have to be notified," said a spokesman for Navy Secretary John Warner.

He refused to provide any more information until notification had been made.

Defense Department sources reported Friday, however, that the men charged were Marine Lt. Col. Edison Wainwright Miller, 41, of Tustin, Calif. and Navy Capt. Walter E. Wilber, 43, of Columbia Cross Roads, Pa.

Irish leader 'proud'

DUBLIN (UPI) — President Eamon De Valera, in his 91st year and almost blind, made a sentimental pilgrimage Sunday to the Dublin landmark where more than half a century ago he defied the firepower of the British army.

"I feel proud of what has been achieved since those days," he said.

Dollar dips lower

LONDON (UPI) — With dealers anxiously awaiting developments in the resumed Watergate hearings, the dollar slipped lower today on European money markets.

"They're waiting for disclosures in the Watergate scandal," said one French banker in explaining the quiet condition of the markets. The televised Senate hearings into the Watergate case resume today.

The American currency opened at a record low in Frankfurt, buying 2.548 marks, compared with 2.5458 at Friday's close.

No politics' upheld

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court today upheld the constitutionality of the 1939 Hatch Act which prohibits political activity by federal employees.

The 6-3 ruling reversed a decision by U.S. District Judge Gerhard A. Gesell in the District of Columbia test case last July 31.

The case was started by the American Civil Liberties Union on behalf of the National Association of Letter Carriers, AFL-CIO, six individual employees and six local Democratic and Republican committees.

Speechwriter dies

NEW YORK (UPI) — Samuel I. Rosenman, adviser to three presidents and the speechwriter who coined the phrase "New Deal" for Franklin D. Roosevelt, died Sunday. He was 77.

Rosenman, who served as State Supreme Court justice from 1933 to 1943, was a leader in the successful fight to deny President Nixon's nomination of Judge G. Harrold Carswell to the US Supreme Court.

Pompidou plans summit

PARIS (UPI) — President Georges Pompidou held staff meetings today before his talks with Leonid I. Brezhnev and amid growing fears in Gaullist France that the world is heading for domination by the United States and Soviet Russia.

French political sources said the two days of meetings between Pompidou and the Soviet leader, starting Tuesday, will be held in the least favorable climate of any Franco-Soviet consultations since the two countries launched an era of close cooperation in 1969.

A compassionate John Dean. Does he want his job back?

Dean 'involves' Nixon

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former White House counsel John W. Dean said today that President Nixon "was involved" in the Watergate affair, but that Nixon did not realize the implications of his involvement.

In opening remarks at the nationally televised Senate Watergate hearings just prior to reading his lengthy public statement, Dean said it was difficult for him to implicate many men whom he respected and admired. He then turned his attention to the President.

"It is my honest belief that while the President was involved, he did not realize or appreciate the implication of his involvement," Dean said, "and I think that when the facts come out I hope the President will be forgiven."

He did not elaborate, instead going straight into his prepared statement. However, he was certain to be asked numerous questions about any possible presidential involvement over the next few days.

Committee Chairman Sam Ervin, prior to Dean's testimony, emphasized for public consumption what had been discussed extensively in closed sessions — that Dean was testifying under subpoena, involuntarily, and that he had been granted limited immunity for anything he might say before the committee.

Early in his testimony, Dean said he would skip parts of his statement to keep within the timetable set by the committee. But Ervin suggested that he read the entire statement since Dean thought it was "important enough to write it." Dean said he would.

"It's a very difficult thing for me to testify about other people. It's far more easy for me to explain my own involvement in this matter; the fact that I was involved in obstruction of justice; the fact that I assisted another in perjured testimony; the fact that I made personal use of funds that were in my custody; it's far easier to talk about these things myself than to talk about what others did."

"Some of these people I'll be referring to are friends, some are men I greatly admire and respect... and particularly with reference to the President of the United States... I'd like to say this:

"It is my honest belief that while the President was involved, he did not realize or appreciate at any time the implications of his involvement and I think that when the facts come out, I hope the President is forgiven."

Dean said the scandal grew out of the Nixon administration's "insatiable appetite for political intelligence."

Dean, who claims personal knowledge of the depth of Nixon's involvement in the burglary and wiretapping of Democratic national headquarters in June 1972, made the characterization of the "climate" in Nixon's White House at the start of his televised testimony before the Senate Watergate Committee.

A 98-page segment of his prepared statement — he was expected to fill the entire hearing day reading it — was given reporters in advance.

School aid struck down

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court struck down as unconstitutional today state aid to parochial schools in the form of tax credits, tuition reimbursements and maintenance payments.

The ruling came on programs adopted in Pennsylvania and New York.

The practice had been attacked as an infringement on the First Amendment, which says "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or the free exercise thereof." The states are also bound by the amendment.

Opinions by Justice Lewis F. Powell Jr. in the two cases noted that the tuition reimbursements if given directly to sectarian schools would violate the first amendment and declared the fact that they are paid to the parents rather than the schools does not eliminate the unconstitutionality of the practice.

Of New York's proposal for allowing parents tax credits, Powell said there seems to be little difference in terms of advancing religion between such tax benefits and outright tuition grants to parochial schools.

"Our examination of New York's aid and provisions, in light of all relevant considerations, compels the judgment that each, as written, has a 'primary effect that advances religion' and offends the constitutional prohibition against laws 'respecting the establishment of religion,'" Powell said for the Court.

The decisions appeared to be a final blow to efforts to find some method of aiding parochial schools that would pass constitutional muster. Some states, notably New York and Pennsylvania, have been enacting statutes almost as fast as the courts struck others down.

Cambodia bombing decision looms

WASHINGTON (UPI) — With the Soviet-American summit meeting over, Congress returned today to the business of legislating an end to the U.S. bombing of Cambodia.

President Nixon may be forced to decide within 10 days whether to accept the congressional verdict or fight back with a veto.

A crucial House vote on the war issue postponed while President Nixon and Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev met was set for this afternoon.

Legislation cutting off funds for further U.S. military action "in, over or from the shores of Cambodia," which passed the Senate 68 to 19 May 31, will come up as part of a $3.3 billion supplemental appropriations bill.

The House Appropriations Committee met this morning to deal with an even stronger war amendment, by Rep. Joseph Addabbo, D-Conn., to cut off funds not only for the Cambodia bombing but for any further U.S. military action in North Vietnam, South Vietnam and Laos.

The House was already on record in opposition to the bombing by votes of 224 to 172 and 219 to 188 on more limited anti-bombing amendments approved on the floor May 10.

House approval of the Senate amendment today, followed by routine Senate approval of the compromise supplemental bill, would send the measure and its anti-war rider to the President.

It would represent the first time in the history of the Vietnam war that Congress unequivocally used its power of the purse to stop a military action in progress.

Nixon has indicated he will veto the bill. A two-thirds Senate majority probably can be mustered to override him, but the President's policies still may have enough residual House support to sustain the veto.

JOHN DEAN III, the fired White House counsel, is sworn in today as the Senate Watergate committee resumes its investigation of the Watergate affair. Sen. Sam Ervin, D-N.C., chairman of the committee, administers the oath. (UPI)

Kimama for sale

KIMAMIA — Bidders were given the opportunity to purchase most of the Kimama townsite in an auction conducted at 10 a.m. this morning at the Lincoln County courthouse.

Lincoln County commissioners called the public auction to dispose of 38 lots in the desert townsite located at an old railroad stop. Ten lots in the original townsite have been purchased by private individuals in past years.

The townsite was once a busy railroad stop between Rupert and Dietrich, but now is almost a ghost town.

TF crash claims second victim

BOISE — A Buhl woman died Sunday in Boise of injuries suffered Saturday in a two-car crash west of Twin Falls.

Melba Lea Davis, 26, died Sunday at St. Alphonsus Hospital in Boise. She was taken to the Boise hospital for treatment of head injuries suffered Saturday in an accident at the U.S. 93-30 junction east of Piler. A California man, Olvin J. Buchanan, was pronounced dead at the scene of the accident.

The accident occurred about 9:15 p.m. when Buchanan, 39, La Puente, Calif., failed to stop at the intersection of U.S. 30 as he was traveling north on U.S. 93.

Buchanan's sedan struck a one-ton truck driven by Phillip M. DeWitt, 33, Buhl, in which Mrs. Davis was a passenger.

DeWitt was reported in good condition today at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital with a fractured right shoulder and possible back injuries.

Skylab astros visit wives

HOUSTON (UPI) — The Skylab 1 astronauts, after a rousing hero's welcome, spent some time at home with their wives today for the first time in two months.

Charles "Pete" Conrad, Joseph P. Kerwin and Paul J. Weitz were greeted Sunday night at Ellington Air Force Base by their joyful wives and a cheering crowd of 2,500, where Conrad predicted their 28-day endurance record would be doubled by the next space station crew.

The homecoming in a drizzling rain followed an earlier meeting with President Nixon and Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev at the Western White House at San Clemente, Calif.

The pilots spent most of today in technical debriefing sessions about their orbital research trip in the largest spaceship ever flown. The next Skylab crew, Alan L. Bean, Owen K. Garriott and Jack R. Lousma, will take off in late July for an eight week stay in the space station.

"I'm glad to turn it over to Capt. Bean and as far as I'm concerned he's got for 56 days," said a beaming Conrad.

Kerwin, the only one of the three to have much difficulty readapting to the earth's gravity after four weeks in weightlessness, said despite his problems, "space is beautiful."

"If this is the worst that space can do, then all your efforts have not been wasted. We're up there to stay," said Kerwin, the first U.S. astronaut physician, hugging his wife to him. "Space is kind to people. Space is beautiful. It's sunny and pleasant up there."

The healthy looking crew spent a long day Sunday in ceremonies aboard their recovery ship, the USS Ticonderoga, in San Diego, and at the Western White House. They were picked up by the aging carrier Friday morning after a pinpoint splashdown.

The President himself drove the Soviet leader in a golf cart to a helicopter pad on the San Clemente compound, where the all Navy crew, decked out in summer dress whites, saluted smartly as the pair approached.

With Nixon standing aside, Brezhnev held an animated conversation with Conrad, Kerwin and Weitz, calling their mission "a great achievement in science and an achievement for the people of the world."

"You are very, very brave men," Brezhnev said through an interpreter. "I am happy for your safe mission."

Brezhnev referred to plans for an American-Soviet orbital rendezvous in 1975, and said, it is "equally important that we are talking on the ground as it is to meet in space."

Tip nets $5

TWIN FALLS — Mrs. Colleen Hinton, Heyburn, will receive $5 for a telephone call to the Times-News.

Summit promises nuclear arms pact

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (UPI) — Hailing their summit talks as a milestone toward peaceful U.S.-Soviet relations, President Nixon and Communist leader Leonid I. Brezhnev today agreed that prospects are favorable for reaching a permanent treaty to clamp a lid on their nuclear arsenals.

In a 17-page joint communique, the two leaders also settled on next Oct. 30 as the date to begin talks on the withdrawal of U.S. and Soviet troops from Europe, and set a goal of $2 billion to $3 billion in trade expansion between the two countries during the next three years.

Nixon and Brezhnev also said they expected the European Security Conference, starting July 3 in Helsinki, will be successfully concluded with an East-West heads of state summit meeting. The conference will seek to ratify post-war boundaries of Europe and the permanent division of Germany.

And both sides also agreed that a world disarmament conference could play a role in ending the arms race "at an appropriate time."

The Brezhnev-Nixon summit, the statement said, centered on ways "nations could work toward removing the danger of war, particularly nuclear war, between the U.S. and U.S.S.R. and between either party and other countries... and the prospects for reaching a permanent agreement on more complete measures limiting strategic offensive armaments are favorable."

The communique was issued as Brezhnev wound up his nine-day stay in the United States and flew to Paris for two days of talks with French President Georges Pompidou. The Communist leader exuded good spirits and satisfaction with the accomplishments of his second round of summitry with Nixon.

Nixon and Brezhnev signed the communique at a farewell ceremony Sunday at the President's Spanish-style villa and Brezhnev forecast a reunion between the two men in Moscow in six to eight months that would produce even more important agreements.

"Both sides are convinced that the discussions they have just held represent a further milestone in the constructive development of their relations," the communique said.

"Convinced that such a development of American-Soviet relations serves the interests of both of their peoples and all of mankind," their statement added, "it was decided to take further major steps to give these relations maximum stability and to turn the development of friendship and cooperation between their peoples into a permanent factor for worldwide peace."

Caldwell man hurt in crash

JEROME — A young Caldwell man was treated and released from St. Benedict's Hospital this morning following an accident three miles south of Jerome on Interstate 80.

David L. Schroeder, 20, was travelling west on the interstate, according to investigating Idaho State Police officers, when he apparently fell asleep at the wheel and his car went off the left side of the road.

Officers said Schroeder's vehicle, a small foreign coupe, travelled 616 feet in the borrow pit then became airborne for another 43 feet before coming to rest upright without rolling. Schroeder's car was demolished. Officers said the reason Schroeder, who is stationed at the Mountain Home Air Base, is still alive is because he was wearing a seat belt and a safety harness.

The accident occurred about 8:30 a.m.

Five shot down by assassin with rifle

GOLDSBORO, N.C. (UPI) — A man carrying a rifle walked into an Air Force base hospital Sunday, said "I'm going to kill everyone in this hospital," and then shot down everyone he saw. Two men were killed and three others wounded.

The gunman fled with his rifle out the rear of the one-story Seymour Johnson Air Force Base hospital, and although the base was sealed off for hours as armed squads searched for him, it appeared he had successfully escaped the 4,000-acre reservation.

A military spokesman said the gunman, described as black, about 5-foot-6, wearing a tan sport shirt and dark trousers, was believed to have fled in a small blue and white foreign car driven by a woman.

"We have no idea who he is, and until we do, we won't have any idea about a motive," said a spokesman.

"One source said the gunman calmly said, 'I'm going to kill everyone in this hospital' when he walked in the door of the emergency entrance."

The three wounded men were all in satisfactory condition Sunday night, but military officials refused to allow them to be interviewed.

The gunman, according to Capt. James Dilda, information officer at the base, walked in the door about 9:30 a.m., and shot one man standing in the entrance. He then whirled and carefully took aim, shooting three men sitting in the medical corps office to his right.

Then he walked a few steps and shot a technician in the X-ray department before fleeing out the other door down a corridor. In all, he fired six to eight shots, aiming carefully.

The dead were identified as Sgt. Larry S. Smith, 22, of Phillip, Maine, a medical corpsman, and Airman Louis Santiago, 20, of New York City, a security policeman who had reported for sick call.

Airman Anthony P. Leonetto of Weatherly, R.I. was hit in the wrist and chest; Sgt. John R. Hayes of Rochester, Mass., was hit in the left chest; T-Sgt. Royer T. Halzerson of Redmon, Wash., received a superficial shoulder wound.

Question...

I travel quite a bit. When my Civil Service widow's pension comes in the mail friends forward it to me. There is great risk of loss this way. Do you have any better suggestion?

Answer...

It has always been possible for you to give your bank the power of attorney to cash this check and to deposit the proceeds in your savings or checking account. Now this procedure has been extended so that you may have the deposit made to your credit union or to your savings and loan account.

In addition to refund federal workers the pensions of retired military personnel may also be deposited in this manner. Not only is this a safer and more convenient way of handling annuity checks but it has other advantages. Interest accrues to your deposit you may title the account to avoid complications after your death and it assists in establishing a legal home for you no matter how extensively you travel.

Project for 'seniors'

Senior program funded

TWIN FALLS - Additional funds to help provide more nutritious meals for senior citizens have been granted the South Central Community Action Agency, Robert Russell, administrative officer, announced.

He said the funds will go toward purchase of a small pickup truck to be used in delivering meals to the homes of senior citizens who are not able to go to the center but need assistance in getting balanced meals.

Russell said the program includes not just a "meals on wheels" program as sponsored by the Senior Citizens Agency, but will also be encouraging senior citizens to get together in small groups of three to five at the home of one person with meals delivered there. This, he said, will "improve the social aspect as well as nutritional benefit the senior citizen can derive from the program."

Advisory committees on senior citizen programs will work with CAA officials in planning the most beneficial use of the funds and equipment.

Jerome man named

JEROME (UPI) - Idaho's lieutenant governor has appointed Rep. Vernon Ravenscroft, R-Jerome, to help Rep. Ray Lincoln, R-Twin Falls, study plans to dispose of 2,000 acres that the federal government owns Idaho.

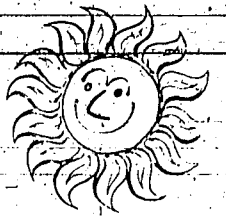

Jack Murphy appointed the fact-finders to study the land west of US 93. They are to confer with Jerome and Twin Falls as well as county officials about the parcel, then submit findings to Murphy.

The legislature gave Murphy the job of selecting endowment lands which were in-lieu-of-lands owned by the federal government to the state of Idaho since statehood.

At present there is a controversy in Jerome County concerning an endowment-land base granted by the Idaho board to an amusement center owner, Val Feller. The center is said to violate zoning laws, according to officials.

Not A King

The authors of the Constitution were certain of one thing. They did not want a king.

They shaped the office of president with that fact in mind. They wanted an efficient administrator but not a sovereign.

One crucial distinction between the American president and the 18th century English king was mentioned repeatedly by the Constitutional draftsmen.

The king was understood to be above law. The American president was not.

The president, the Constitution says, "shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed." The grounds for impeachment, moreover, rest in breach of law.

"The President shall be removed from office on impeachment for, and conviction of, treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors."

Although the precise intent of the Constitutional language will undoubtedly be argued for years to come, there is little doubt that the president was not set above the law.

What then are we to think, then, of President Nixon's admission that he decided to permit his subordinates to undertake illegal entry on both foreign and domestic matters.

As clearly shown in the documents printed on this page, presidential advisors had few qualms in recommending to the president a course of action which they understood to be illegal. They even communicated to the president their view of the illegality of certain classes of breaking and entry.

The president's decision, as shown in the final document, permits his confederates to undertake illegal entry.

The only consideration apparently weighed by the President and his advisors was the potential embarrassment to the administration should the president's decision become known publicly.

It was apparently for this reason that the president withdrew approval for the plan after several days when FBI head J. Edgar Hoover continued to object.

Presumably Hoover simply told the President he would make the plan public.

What of today. Today there is no J. Edgar Hoover to protest such a plan. If the President's sole public reason for cancelling his plan is no longer there, who is to say that such a plan is not in operation today.

Our only assurance that such a plan is not in effect is only our faith that the President would refuse to break the law. Such assurance would be hard to believe today.

There are constitutional remedies available to the President. He may and perhaps should ask Congress for legislation expanding his ability to gather information in foreign and domestic cases.

Under such a shield, the President would be acting within the framework of law, as the Constitution intends.

Following are memorandums from July, 1970, recommending that President Nixon approve a program of increased domestic intelligence gathering. The memorandums were written by Tom Charles Huston, who was at the time an aide to Mr. Nixon. They accompanied a 43-page report, which has not been made public. Mr. Nixon has said that he approved the recommendations but, resented his approval five days later, because of protests by J. Edgar Hoover. The validity of these texts, which were first printed in the New York Times, was confirmed by Huston.

The recommendation...

Operational Restraints on Intelligence Collection
A. Interpretive Restraint on Communications Intelligence
RECOMMENDATION:
Present interpretation should be broadened to permit and program for coverage by N.S.A. (National Security Agency) of the communications of U.S. citizens using international facilities.

RATIONALE:
The F.B.I. does not have the capability to monitor international communications. N.S.A. is currently doing so on a restricted basis, and the information is particularly useful to the White House and it would be to our disadvantage to allow the F.B.I. to determine what NSA should do in this area without regard to our own requirements. No appreciable risk is involved in this course of action.

B. Electronic Surveillance and Penetrations

RECOMMENDATION:
Present procedures should be changed to permit intensification of coverage of individuals and groups in the United States who pose a major threat to the internal security.

Also, present procedures should be changed to permit intensification of coverage of foreign nationals and diplomatic establishments in the United States of interest to the intelligence community.

At the present time, less than (unclear) electronic penetrations are operative. This includes coverage of the C.P.U.S.A. (Communist Party, U.S.A.) and organized crime targets, with only a few authorized against subject of pressing internal security interest.

Mr. Hoover's statement that the F.B.I. would not oppose other agencies seeking approval for the operating electronic surveillances is gratuitous since no other agencies have the capability.

Everyone knowledgeable in the field, with the exception of Mr. Hoover concurs that existing coverage is grossly inadequate. C.I.A. and N.S.A. note that this is particularly true of diplomatic establishments, and we have learned at the White House that it is also true of new Left groups.

C. Mail Coverage

RECOMMENDATION:
Restrictions on legal coverage should be removed.

Also, present restrictions on covert coverage should be relaxed on selected targets of priority foreign intelligence and internal security interest.

RATIONALE:

There is no valid argument against use of legal mail covers except Mr. Hoover, concern that the civil liberties people may become upset. This risk is surely an acceptable one and hardly serious enough to justify denying ourselves a valuable and legal intelligence tool.

There are serious risks involved. However, the advantages to be derived from its use outweigh the risks. This technique is particularly valuable in identifying espionage agents and other contacts of foreign intelligence services.

D. Surveillants Entry

RECOMMENDATION:
Present restrictions should be modified to permit procurement of vitally needed foreign cryptographic material.

Also, present restrictions should be modified to permit selective use of this technique against other urgent security targets.

RATIONALE:

Use of this technique is clearly illegal: it amounts to burglary. It is also highly risky and could result in great embarrassment if exposed. However, it is also the most fruitful tool and can produce the type of intelligence which cannot be obtained in any other fashion.

The F.B.I., in Mr. Hoover's younger days, used to conduct such operations with great success and with no exposure. The information secured was invaluable.

N.S.A. has a particular interest since it is possible by this technique to secure material with which N.S.A. can break foreign cryptographic codes. We spend millions of dollars attempting to break these codes by machine. One successful surreptitious entry can do the job successfully at no dollar cost.

Surreptitious entry of facilities occupied by subversive elements can turn up information about identities methods of operation, and other invaluable investigative information which is not otherwise obtainable. This technique would be particularly helpful if used against the Weathermen and Black Panthers.

The deployment of the executive protector force has increased the risk of surreptitious entry of diplomatic establishments. However, it is the belief of all except Mr. Hoover that the technique can still be successfully used on a selective basis.

E. Development of Campus Sources

RECOMMENDATION:
Present restrictions should be relaxed to permit expanded coverage of violence-prone campus and student-related groups.

Also, C.I.A. coverage of American students (and others) traveling or living abroad should be increased.

RATIONALE:

The F.B.I. does not currently recruit any campus sources among individuals below 21 years of age. This dramatically reduces the pool from which sources may be drawn. Mr. Hoover is afraid of a young student surfacing in the press as an F.B.I. source, although the reaction in the past to such events has been minimal. After all, everyone assumes the F.B.I. has such sources.

The campus is the battleground of the revolutionary protest movement. It is impossible to gather effective intelligence about the movement unless we have campus sources. The risk of exposure is minimal, and where exposure occurs the adverse publicity is moderate and short-lived. It is a price we must be willing to pay for effective coverage of the campus scene. The intelligence community, with the exception of Mr. Hoover, feels strongly that it is imperative the (was unclear) increase the number of campus sources this fall in order to forestall widespread violence.

C.I.A. claims there are no existing restraints on its coverage of over-seas activities of U.S. nationals. However, this coverage has been grossly inadequate since 1966 and an explicit directive to increase coverage is required.

F. Use of Military Undercover Agents

RECOMMENDATION:
Present restrictions should be retained.

RATIONALE:

The intelligence community is agreed that the risks of lifting these restraints are greater than the value of any possible intelligence which would be acquired by doing so.

Budget and Manpower Restrictions

RECOMMENDATION:
Each agency should submit a detailed estimate as to projected manpower needs and other costs in the event the various investigative restraints herein are lifted.

RATIONALE:

In the event that the above recommendations are concurred in, it will be necessary to modify existing budgets to provide the money and manpower necessary for their implementation. The intelligence community has been badly hit in the budget squeeze. (I suspect the foreign intelligence operations are in the same shape) and it may be will be necessary to make some modifications. The projected figures should be reasonable, but will be subject to individual review if this recommendation is accepted.

Measures to Improve Domestic Intelligence Operations

RECOMMENDATION:
A permanent committee consisting of the F.B.I., C.I.A., N.S.A., D.I.A. (Defense Intelligence Agency) and the military counterintelligence agencies should be appointed to provide evaluations of domestic intelligence estimates, and carry out the other objectives specified in the report.

The need for increased coordination, joint estimates, and responsiveness to the White House is obvious to the intelligence community. There are a number of operational problems which need to be worked out since Mr. Hoover is fearful of any mechanism which might jeopardize his autonomy. C.I.A. would prefer an ad hoc committee to see how the system works, but other members believe that this would merely delay the establishment of effective coordination and joint operations. The value of lifting intelligence collection restraints is proportional to the availability of joint operations and evaluation, and the establishment of this interagency group is considered imperative.

RATIONALE:

... the explanation ...

Top Secret Analysis and Strategy
Memorandum for: H. R. Haldeman
From: Tom Charles Huston
Subject: Domestic intelligence review

1. Background

A working group consisting of the top domestic intelligence officials of the FBI, CIA, DIA, NSA, and each of the military services met regularly throughout June to discuss the problems outlined by the President and to draft the attached report. The discussions were frank and quality of work first-rate. Cooperation was excellent, and all were delighted that and opportunity was finally at hand to address themselves jointly to the serious internal security threat which exists.

I participated in all meetings, but restricted my involvement to keeping the committee on the target—the President established. My impression that the report would be more accurate and the recommendations more helpful if the agencies were allowed wide latitude in expressing their opinions and working out arrangements which they felt met the President's requirements consistent with the resources and missions of the member agencies.

2. Mr. Hoover

I went into this exercise fearful that C.I.A. would refuse to cooperate. In fact, Dick Helms (Director of Central Intelligence) was most cooperative and helpful, and the only stumbling block was Mr. Hoover. He attempted at the first meeting to divert the committee from operational problems and redirect its mandate to the preparation of another analysis of existing intelligence. I declined to acquiesce in this approach, and succeeded in getting the committee back on target.

When the working group completed its report, Mr. Hoover refused to go along with a single conclusion drawn or support a single recommendation made. His position was twofold:

(1) Current operations are perfectly satisfactory and (2) No one has any business commenting on procedures he has established for the collection of intelligence by the F.B.I. He attempted to modify the body of the report, but I successfully opposed it on the grounds that the report was the conclusion of all the agencies, not merely the F.B.I. Mr. Hoover then entered his objections as footnotes to the report. Cumulatively, his footnotes suggest that he is perfectly satisfied with current procedures and is opposed to any changes whatsoever. As you will note from the report, his objections are generally inconsequential and frivolous—most express concern about possible embarrassment to the intelligence community (i.e., Hoover from public disclosure of clandestine operations).

Admiral Gayler and General Bennett were greatly displeased by Mr. Hoover's attitude and his insistence on footnoting objections. They wished to raise a formal protest and sign the report only with the understanding that they opposed the footnotes. I prevailed upon them not to do so since it would only aggravate Mr. Hoover and further complicate our efforts. They graciously agreed to go along with my suggestion in order to avoid a nasty scene and jeopardize the possibility of positive action resulting from the report. I assured them that their opinion would be brought to the attention of the President.

3. Threat Assessment

The first 23 pages of the report constitute an assessment of the existing internal security threat, our current intelligence coverage of this threat, and areas where our coverage is inadequate. All agencies concurred in this assessment, and it serves to explain the importance of expanded intelligence collection efforts.

4. Restraints on Intelligence Collection

Part Two of the report discusses specific operational restraints which currently restrict the capability of the intelligence community to collect the types of information necessary to deal effectively with the internal security threat. The report explains the nature of the restraints and sets out the arguments for and against modifying them. My concern was to afford the President the strongest arguments on both sides of the question so that he could make an informed decision as to the future course of action to be followed by the intelligence community.

I might point out that of all the individuals involved in the preparation and consideration of this report, only Mr. Hoover is satisfied with existing procedures.

Those individuals within the FBI who have day-to-day responsibilities for domestic intelligence operations privately disagree with Mr. Hoover and believe that it is imperative that changes in operating procedures be initiated at once.

I am attaching to this memorandum my recommendations on the decision the President should make with regard to those operational restraints. Although the report sets forth the pros and cons on each issue, it may be helpful to add my specific recommendations and the reasons therefore in event the President has some doubts on a specific course of action.

5. Improvement in Inter-Agency Coordination

All members of the committee and its working group, with the exception of Mr. Hoover, believe that it is imperative that a continuing mechanism be established to effectuate the coordination of domestic intelligence data. In the past there has been no systematic effort to mobilize the full resources of the intelligence community in the internal security area and there has been no mechanism for preparing community-wide domestic intelligence estimates such as is done in the foreign intelligence area. The United States Intelligence Board, Domestic Intelligence Information coming into the White House has been fragmentary and unevaluated. We have not had, for example, a community-wide estimate of what we might expect short or long-term in the cities or on the campuses or within the military establishment.

Unlike most of the bureaucracy, the intelligence community welcomes direction and leadership from the White House. There appears to be agreement, with the exception of Mr. Hoover, that effective coordination within the community is possible only if there is direction from the White House. Moreover, the community is pleased that the White House is finally showing interest in their activities and an awareness of the threat which they so acutely recognize.

I believe that we will be making a major contribution to the security of the country if we can work out an arrangement which provides for institutionalized coordination within the intelligence community and effective leadership from the White House.

6. Implementation of the President's decisions

If the President should decide to lift some of the current restrictions and if he should decide to authorize a formalized domestic intelligence structure, I would recommend the following steps:

(A) Mr. Hoover should be called in privately for a stroking session at which the President explains the decision he has made, thanks Mr. Hoover for his candid advice and past cooperation, and indicates he is counting on Edgar's cooperation in implementing the new decisions.

(B) Following this Hoover session, the same individuals who were present at the initial session in the Oval Office should be invited back to meet with the President. At that time, the President should thank them for the report, announce his decisions, indicate his desires for future activity, and present each with an autographed copy of the photo of the first meeting which Ollie took.

(C) An official memorandum setting forth the precise decisions of the President should be prepared so that there can be no misunderstanding. We should also incorporate a review procedure which will enable us to ensure that the decisions are fully implemented.

I hate to suggest a further imposition on the President's time, but think these steps will be necessary to pave over some of the obvious problems which may arise if the President decides, as I hope he will, to overrule Mr. Hoover's objections to many of the proposals made in this report. Having seen the President in action with Mr. Hoover, I am confident that he can handle this situation in such a way that we can get what we want without putting Edgar's nose out of joint. At the same time, we can capitalize on the good will the President has built up with the other principals and minimize the risk that they may feel they are being forced to take a back seat to Mr. Hoover.

7. Conclusion

I am delighted with the substance of this report and believe it is a first-rate job. I have great respect for the integrity, loyalty, and competence of the men who are operationally responsible for internal security matters and believe that we are on the threshold of an unexcelled opportunity to cope with a very serious problem in its germinal stages when we can avoid the necessity for harsh measures by acting swift, discreetly, and decisively to deflect the threat before it reaches alarming proportions.

I might add, in conclusion, that it is my personal opinion that Mr. Hoover will not hesitate to accede to any decision which the President makes, and the President should not, therefore, be reluctant to overrule Mr. Hoover's objections. Mr. Hoover is set in his ways and can be bull-headed as hell, but he is a loyal trooper. Twenty years ago he would never have raised the type of objections he has here, but he's getting old and worried about his legend. He makes life tough in this area, but not impossible—he'll respond to direction by the President and that is all we need to set the domestic intelligence house in order.

TOP SECRET

Subject: Domestic Intelligence

The President has carefully studied the special report of the Interagency Committee on Intelligence (ad hoc) and made the following decisions.

1. Interpretive Restraint on Communications Intelligence

National Security Council Intelligence Directive Number 6 (NSCID-6) is to be interpreted to permit NSA to program for coverage the communications of U.S. citizens using international facilities.

2. Electronic Surveillances and Penetrations
The intelligence community is directed to intensify coverage of individuals and groups in the United States who pose a major threat to the internal security. Also, coverage of foreign nationals and diplomatic establishments in the United States of interest to the intelligence community is to be intensified.

3. Mail Coverage
Restrictions on legal coverage are to be removed, restrictions on covert coverage are to be relaxed to permit use of this technique on selected targets of priority foreign intelligence and internal security interest.

4. Surveillants Entry
Restrictions on the use of surreptitious entry are to be removed. The technique is to be used to permit procurement of vitally needed foreign cryptographic material and against other urgent and high priority internal security targets.

5. Development of Campus Sources
Coverage of violence-prone campus and student-related groups is to be increased. All restraints which limit this coverage are to be removed. Also, CIA coverage of American students (and others) traveling or living abroad is to be increased.

6. Use of Military Undercover Agents

Present restrictions are to be retained.

7. Budget and Manpower
Each agency is to submit a detailed estimate as to projected manpower needs and other costs required to implement the above decisions.

8. Domestic Intelligence Operations

A committee consisting of the directors or other appropriate representatives appointed by the directors of the FBI, CIA, NSA, DIA, and the military counterintelligence agencies is to be constituted effective August 1, 1970, to provide evaluations of domestic intelligence, prepared periodic domestic intelligence estimates, carry out the other objectives specified in the report, and perform such other duties as the President shall, from time to time, assign. The director of the FBI shall serve as chairman of the committee. Further details on the organization and operations of this committee are set forth in an attached memorandum.

The President has directed that each addressee submit a detailed report, due on September 1, 1970, on the steps taken to implement these decisions. Further such periodic reports will be requested as circumstances merit.

The President is aware that procedural problems may arise in the course of implementing these decisions. However, he is anxious that such problems be resolved with maximum speed and minimum misunderstanding. Any difficulties which may arise should be brought to my immediate attention in order that an appropriate solution may be found and the President's directives implemented in a manner consistent with his objectives.

PUBLIC TRUST

Next 3 months key to world wheat crop, supply

By H. J. MAIDENBERG
(c) New York Times Service
NEW YORK — The period from now until the end of September is the critical one, during which we shall continue to live in an atmosphere of "troubled uncertainty," assuming that uncertainty is not brutally cut short by a sudden disaster.

These were not the words of a hair-shirted political campaigner or of someone planning a costly vacation.

Rather, they were spoken the other day by Addeke H. Boerma, director general of the United Nations Food and Agricultural Organization. Boerma was talking about the world wheat crop.

His words were the latest reminder that the world today is experiencing the greatest shortage of foodstuffs and other basic commodities ever seen in a relatively peaceful period.

Ironically, the specter of hunger looms at a time when the world's production of wheat is about to set another record, at a time when people are, on balance, living better than at any time in history and at a time when international trade is being unfettered from political restrictions.

For the vast majority of Americans, worried about fitting into a bathing suit that has mysteriously shrunk since last summer, talk about food shortages has always had a foreign ring. The only rationing that Americans have ever experienced is "price rationing," or the ability to pay for food.

But all that is history. For the first time since World War II, the government has no surpluses of wheat or other foodstuffs, either to give away to foreign friends or to put a lid on domestic prices.

And, for the first time ever, Americans may have to share what they have with the rest of the world or fight to keep it from them (by peaceful or other means) because starving people are being told they need not go hungry, either here or abroad.

What has caused this dramatic state of affairs? Aren't the American farmers, 2 per cent of the nation's population, able to feed the other 98 per cent by wringing annual miracles from the soil? And aren't the foreigners learning to produce better and larger crops?

In the case of wheat, the answers are simple for agricultural experts such as the FAO's Boerma, commodity brokers, exporters and others worried about the weather this summer.

American farmers have increasingly produced more wheat over the years, although their numbers have shrunk. Aided by science, they averaged a record 36.6 bushels an acre last year and produced a record total of 1.6 billion bushels. Farmers in the Soviet Union produced 2.3 billion bushels of wheat last year, despite adverse weather that cut production by 25 per cent.

Overall, world wheat production increased from 5 billion bushels to 11 billion bushels (400 pounds each) between 1950 and 1972. And it is expected to rise 5 or 10 per cent this year, according to the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City, the heart of this country's wheat industry.

That 80 per cent increase in wheat production between 1950 and 1972 compared with a 52 per cent rise in the world's population during the same period. Of the 5-billion-bushel increase in wheat output during the period, China, the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe accounted for 2.2 billion bushels; with the United States and the rest of the world making up the rest.

Why, then, should there be any concern about a shortage of what or other basic foodstuffs?

The answer the experts give is that, despite widespread poverty suffered by most of the world's 3.8 billion people, they are living better than ever before, even if the improvement is almost imperceptible to many foreigners. And every 24 hours there are 200,000 more mouths to feed.

The obvious improvement in living standards of the Chinese and Russians alone means that more than a billion people for the first time, have become consumers rather than window shoppers.

The 500 million people of the Indian subcontinent are demanding to be fed, and fewer of them each year are resigned to starvation. Paying the wheat bill for the hundreds of millions of Pakistanis, Indians and Bengalis is a major problem for them and Washington. Again, there are no American surpluses left to give away.

Elsewhere in the world people, swarming from rural to urban areas, are no longer able to raise their own food.

Brazil, for example, was an economic basket case nine years ago, with 65 per cent of her 100 million people living in rural areas scratching for their own sustenance. Now only 35 per cent of Brazil's population live outside cities and towns.

Moreover, the industrialization of Brazil has

China came into the market for smaller quantities of grain, and other countries began buying to assure themselves of supplies.

With political trade barriers falling, a purchase of wheat in one country is equivalent to a purchase in another.

For example, if the Chinese buy Australian or Canadian wheat, as they do regularly, other buyers have to shift to this country and that will be the pattern in the future. In short, the buyers are all reaching for the same table.

That is one reason why the price of American wheat is now more than twice $1.40 a bushel it was a year ago. Another reason is that, while science can come up with better seed and fertilizers, nature has the final word.

And the world this spring was rain, which delayed planting. If the word turns to drought this summer it will spell the disaster Boerma was talking about.

The farmers of the world know that the Soviet Union and China can be expected to have more poor crop years in the future.

Most Soviet wheat-growing areas are at the latitude of Canada and subject to the same vicissitudes of nature. Drought will probably continue to plague China.

And each time nature frowns on the farmers of the world, there will be more mouths to feed.

For the first time,
Americans may have to share what they have, or fight to keep it from rest
of starving world

given that country the capital to expand wheat output at home and pay for what she must import.

The Japanese economic miracle has put an additional 100 million customers at the door of wheat producers.

As this global demand for wheat began building some 20 years ago, it was largely ignored because U.S. surpluses were ample to the point of irritation. American taxpayers complained of the cost of subsidies.

Farmers complained that the subsidies were too little to assure them a profit and too much to shut the farm down.

Politicians framed farm programs to suit their immediate needs, and the nation's agricultural industry seemed to stumble along without any purpose.

Then came last year's massive soviet grain purchases at "bargain prices." Of the 30 million tons bought by Moscow, 18 million came from this country.

The purchases included 11 million tons of wheat — one-fourth America's annual output and about equal to Canada's total production in an average year.

Japanese food purchases set record, due to climb higher

By BERNARD BRENNER
UPI Farm Editor
WASHINGTON (UPI) —

Japan's aggressive food and farm product buyers will push their imports from the U.S. to a record $2 billion or more in the fiscal year ending June 30, nearly 75 per cent above the level of a year earlier, the Agriculture Department says.

Figures for calendar year 1973 may be even more impressive, added Bruce L. Greenshields, a department economist.

Greenshields said in an article published today that Japanese buyers may continue to take advantage of the fact that devaluation of the dollar allows them to buy more soybeans, corn and other crops for their yen.

Greenshields' article made no reference to the possibility of U.S. action to limit exports of some of the livestock-feed commodities which rank at the top of the Japanese import list, including corn and soybeans.

President Nixon has asked in two or three years. That level is in sight for 1972-73 Greenshields said, partly because the Japanese have been trying to stockpile farm products to protect themselves against worldwide shortages, and because Japanese consumer demand is growing rapidly as the country continues to pull out of its "mini-recession" of 1971.

For new standby authority to limit shipments of these crops, and has said he would use the authority if it appears necessary to protect U.S. consumers from runaway meat, poultry and milk prices.

The Agriculture Department economist said several factors in addition to devaluations — of the dollar have played a major role in the boom in sales to Japan which has moved faster than most American experts expected.

Early this year, Agriculture Department officials noted that exports to Japan had reached nearly $1.2 billion in the 1972-73 fiscal year and predicted that a $2 billion plateau would be approached

Currency value changes, however, have been a prime factor in the sharp gain in export figures. Greenshields pointed out that in calendar 1973, the amount of yen which bought $1.4 billion worth of U.S. farm products in 1972 will buy stocks valued at $1.7 billion. Some of this gain is offset by "higher dollar prices," but there has been a gain in the physical volume of shipment, the experts said.

Greenshields said soybeans are soybean products led the list of U.S. farm exports to Japan in calendar 1972 with shipments valued at $380 million. They were followed by corn, wheat, grain sorghum, cotton, cattle hides, tobacco and pork. Rapidly rising pork shipments to Japan have troubled some consumer-oriented critics who fear the sales are helping the "keep domestic pork supplies tight."

The Agriculture Department economist said the outlook for U.S. farm product sales to Japan, which have grown steadily over the past decade, is "not quite so optimistic" after 1973. Greenshields said this is partly because of current heavy stockpiling in Japan which may reduce future orders, and partly because Japan continues to maintain import barriers on some foods including fruits and vegetables.

Also, he said, Japan is continuing a policy of seeking new suppliers in Australia and Asia who may furnish future competition for U.S. livestock feed producers.

Quick worker

FREMONT, Calif. (UPI) — When a new bank teller at the Fremont Bank went to lunch and failed to return, a quick audit showed $7,000 was missing.

Police promptly issued an all-points bulletin for Miss Carol L. Skodi, 21, Newark, who began work only two weeks ago. Police said her car was found abandoned and her apartment was empty.

Miss Skodi wrote a $7,000 withdrawal slip on a savings account of a Union City businessman, police said.

W. Berlin's mayor exudes confidence

BERLIN (UPI) — West Berlin Mayor Klaus Schuetz, in speeches marking the 25th anniversary of the Berlin blockade said Saturday the city could face the future with confidence.

"We do not need to fear either a political or an economic crisis," he said.

But he warned that the West must make sure that the Soviet Union lives up to the Big Four agreement designed to lessen tension here.

Schuetz discussed West Berlin's future in a radio speech on the blockade anniversary and in an address to a meeting here of leaders of the West German Social Democratic party.

No ceremonies were held here June 19 on the 25th anniversary of the beginning of the Soviets' 18-month blockade of West Berlin but Schuetz discussed the blockade Saturday.

He said the blockade was the city's "blackest post-war hour."

"We can say today that the fight we fought in the free part of the city has been successful," Schuetz said.

(West Berlin today is an integral part of the legal, economic and financial system of the West German Federal Republic."

But Schuetz told a West German Social Democratic meeting attended by Chancellor Willy Brandt — a former mayor of West Berlin — that the Soviet Union must not be allowed to cast doubt on the legality of West Berlin's ties to West Germany.

He said these ties are recognized by the Big Four foreign ministers' agreement of June 3 and the Soviet Union must "correct" its "false attitude" toward the agreement.

The Soviets have stressed that part of the agreement that says West Berlin is not a state of the Federal Republic but has played down the part that says West Berlin's ties to West Germany will be maintained and developed.

Hansen endorses fuel allotments

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Orval Hansen, R-Idaho, Friday said time is running out for a mandatory system of allotting petroleum products to assure a supply for farmers must be started.

"With the harvest beginning in many parts of the nation, time is running out. At harvest time even a few days delay because of fuel shortages could result in serious crop losses," he said.

Hansen said he has urged President Nixon to exercise the authority granted him by Congress to direct a mandatory allocation of fuel to protect farm interests.

"The voluntary allocation system — has been a disappointment in many areas. Shortages have forced several gasoline stations and wholesalers to curtail operations or to go out of business. Many of these are the main source of supply for farmers. And often there is no alternative source of supply," he said.

29 die in New Orleans bar fire

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — A flash fire raced through a small upstairs bar in New Orleans' famed French Quarter Sunday night, killing 29 persons.

Authorities said today there was some evidence of arson.

Fifteen persons escaped death by bolting through a second story window, but they were all injured in the plunge. Another five or six persons perched on a window ledge or a fire escape until they were rescued by firemen.

"The detective bureau is investigating witnesses, looking into the possibility of arson," said Frank Hayward, information officer for the New Orleans Police Department.

William J. McCrossen, New Orleans' fire superintendent, said the blaze began on one side of the second floor lounge, a bar about the size of a living room. A bathroom—and the only exit—were located on the side where the fire started.

"It was a rapidly moving fire," McCrossen said. "We are checking several reports that some people smelled something that smelled like gasoline."

The four alarm blaze was reported at 7:56 p.m. and brought under control 16 minutes later. In that time 29 persons died, all but a handful clustered at the base of windows on the opposite side of the room from the exit. The bodies of the other victims were found in the bathroom.

The survivors crashed through thin plywood panels, which boarded the windows.

"Fifteen persons were able to leap from the second story of the building and firemen were able to rescue about five or six other people standing on a window ledge and a fire escape," Hayward said.

Six of those who jumped were seriously injured. The others were reported in good or fair condition at Charity Hospital.

"I heard all the commotion and ran into the street," said Gene Davis, the owner of a bar two doors down the street. "There was Luther Boggs—I cash checks for him—dancing at the window with his clothes on fire. We told him, 'Jump! Jump!' He did, and they took him away to the hospital."

Gary Williamson, 10, of Alexandria, La., said he and a friend went to the lounge minutes before the blaze and left because an argument was going on. Williamson said, minutes after leaving he saw flames pouring from the three story building.

Firemen and crews from the Orleans Parish coroner's office worked for more than four hours after the blaze, lifting the charred bodies onto a 65-foot snorkel truck and down to a waiting line of ambulances. Each ambulance carried three or four bodies covered in green vinyl bags.

One witness, a resident of a hotel two blocks away, said he saw three persons jump.

"I saw the first guy jump out and I saw the second guy land right behind him," the witness said. "They didn't move when they hit. The third guy weighed about 300 pounds and he was still on fire when he hit the street."

Another witness said one of the injured ran screaming down the street and had to be stopped by firemen.

"One guy was running down the street with his hands in the air and blood streaming down his face. The rescue units had to stop him, he didn't know where he was running."

POLICE and Charity Hospital attendants lift a body bag holding a fire victim from a fire, snorkel basket today as they went about the gruesome task of removing most of the 29 bodies from a burned out bar and club in the French Quarter in New Orleans. The fire started shortly before 8 p.m. Sunday, claimed most of its victims on the second and third story of the old building. (UPI)

Viet Cong, Saigon agree

SAIGON (UPI) — The Viet Cong said today it had finally reached agreement with the Saigon government on a timetable for resuming exchange of military and civilian prisoners of war, ending a two-month deadlock.

On the truce front, the Saigon command reported a cease-fire violations in the 24 hours ending at noon today, 17 fewer than in the previous 24 hours.

Three small ground attacks and a shelling, all within 40 miles of Saigon, killed three government soldiers and wounded seven. Two Communists were slain in one of the actions, a command spokesman said.

Five persons were killed and two wounded when a hamlet administrative office was attacked deep in the Mekong Delta, 100 miles southwest of Saigon. Communist casualties were unknown, the spokesman said.

On Sunday, the command reported killing 22 Communists in a spurt of fighting in the Mekong Delta.

Viet Cong press officer Capt. Phuong Nam said today agreement for the resumed exchange was made through the Joint Military Commission (JMC). He said the releases are scheduled to resume Friday and will continue through July 7. In that period, he said, the Viet Cong will free 617 persons and the government 533.

The timetable also provides for visits by representatives of the two sides to a prison camp operated by each side. The Viet Cong prison visit will be on July 2 at Duc Nghiep in Pleiku Province in the Central Highlands.

The following day a government prison camp at Tam Hiep in Bien Hoa Province, near Saigon, will be visited, Nam said.

A command spokesman said the delta fighting broke out when Communist troops attacked a South Vietnamese infantry position Sunday morning near Kien Thien, 125 miles southwest of Saigon.

He said 22 Communists died in the battle at a cost of 15 infantrymen wounded.

The command has been reporting one or more incidents involving civilian casualties almost daily since the initial Jan. 28 cease-fire.

Convicts release hostages unharmed

EDDYVILLE, Ky. (UPI) — Four hostages, held captive about 17 hours at the Eddyville State Penitentiary canteen here by three convicts, were released unharmed today.

The convicts, armed with long homemade knives, reportedly released their hostages after Kentucky Corrections Commissioner Charles Holmes agreed to allow them to meet with newsmen to air grievances.

The prisoners holed up in the prison canteen, where there was enough food for a stay of several days.

The ordeal began Sunday, shortly before 1 p.m., when the three overpowered Guy Lowry, a guard, Paul Gray, a canteen worker, and two unidentified prisoners. The hostages reportedly were unharmed.

Kentucky Corrections Commissioner Charles Holmes arrived at the penitentiary late Sunday and insisted he would not negotiate until the hostages were released. He flew in from Frankfort, the state capital.

Prison officials, who did not release information about the takeover for nearly eight hours, have provided only sketchy details.

Two of the three inmates, Jerry Tingle and Danny Dobson, were involved in a similar incident at the penitentiary last August.

MR. AND MRS. PATRICK LeCERTUA

Miss Griff and LeCerta wed

TWIN FALLS — Kathleen Griff and Patrick LeCerta were married in a June 9 ceremony at St. Edwards Catholic Church, Twin Falls.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert Grant before an altar flanked by baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and candelabra holding green tapers accented with greenery and green bows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Griff, Twin Falls, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess LeCerta, Shoshone.

The bride wore a floor length candlelight gown, which she designed and made herself. The gown featured a high collar, lily point lace sleeves and a scooped neckline covered with a scalloped bodice of re-embroidered lace accented with seed pearls. The empire style dress had a self train extending from the shoulders. The gown was bordered with a lace panel.

Her finger tip four tiered veil of bridal illusion accented with lace appliques and seed pearls was also made by the bride. She carried a trailing cascade bouquet of yellow roses and pink elegance carnations accented with baby's breath and stephanotis.

She wore a pearl ring belonging to the late Mrs. John Sommer, her maternal grandmother and the bridal pendant of the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Carlotta Griff, Twin Falls.

Christi Griff, Twin Falls, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mrs. Michael Anderson, Boise, was matron of honor. Mrs. Marc Lauhere, Long Beach, Calif., twin sister of the bridegroom and Christi Griff, Twin Falls, served as bridesmaid attendants.

Elwin Shores, Klamath Falls, Ore., was best man. Dick Griff, Ron Griff and Gary Mori, Kennermer, Wyo., were ushers.

J. Howard Moon was soloist. The couple was honored at a reception following the ceremony in the church parish hall.

The bride's table was decorated with green and yellow carnations and centered with a four tiered cake. White tapers in silver candelabra flanked the cake.

Michele LeCerta, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Chris Anderson cared for the gifts. Mrs. James Sommer and Mrs. John Sommer served cake with Mrs. David Sommer and Mrs. David Lamun assisting. Shirlee Joslin served punch and Sandee Sommer served coffee. All are cousins of the bride. Mrs. Carl Gibbons, San Diego, Calif., sister of the bridegroom was in charge of the snack table.

The parents of the bridegroom were hosts for a rehearsal dinner at the Colonial Room of the Rogerson Hotel. The bride's parents were hosts for a supper party for the bridal party and out of town guests at their home following the wedding and reception.

The bride was honored at a pre-nuptial shower given by Mrs. Ralph Ward, Mrs. Heber Loughmiller and Mrs. Pete Thornton at the Ward residence.

The bride is a 1969 graduate of the University of Idaho with a degree in English. The bridegroom is a 1969 graduate of Carroll College, Helena, Mont., with a degree in Spanish. He has attended the Universidad de Deusto, Bilbao, Spain and received his master's degree from the University of Wyoming this spring. The bride is employed by the Boise school system as a teacher. The couple will reside in Boise until they move to Lexington Kentucky where the bridegroom has been granted a teaching assistantship to complete studies for a Ph.D.

Abby

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a middle-aged woman who is presently dating a man a few years older than I am. He is loaded with money and takes me to all the finest places. He has a fine automobile, dresses expensively and beautifully, and is very good-looking. He sounds perfect, doesn't he? Well, he would be, except for one fault. He HATES to tip. And I mean he absolutely will not tip anyone a dime for anything unless that person has performed a special service other than what he is being paid to do.

For example: We will go to a restaurant and if this gentleman thinks the food is exceptionally good he will send a $15 bill to the COOK. He says, "Why tip the waiter? He just serves it. The cook deserves the tip." He will tip a waiter only if the waiter gives him extra special service. Doormen get nothing. ("I can open the door myself," he says.) Captains get nothing. ("He's supposed to show us to our table.") Parking attendants get nothing.

This man claims he is not cheap—just sensible. Do you think he's "sensible" or cheap? EMBARRASSED

He's just insensitive

DEAR EMBARRASSED: Any man who tips the cook for excellence cannot be considered "cheap." (Too few even think of it.) However, he should realize that many people who perform services depend upon their tips for their bread and butter. I know it shouldn't be that way, but, unfortunately, that's the way it is.

DEAR ABBY: I am 5 foot 7 (stocking feet), 20 years old, and am told I have a very beautiful face and figure. My boy friend, who I am beginning to love dearly, is 5 foot 6. David is very handsome, but on the stocky side.

I find that the difference in our height bothers me. I am very uncomfortable when he and I are out together, and I keep hoping we won't run into people we know. When we do, I imagine they are thinking: "My goodness, SHE is taller than HE is!" I realize that a man's height shouldn't be all that important, but I am torn apart worrying about what people think and say about it.

I'm beginning to think it just won't work out between David and me. I'm so afraid if I marry him I will always think maybe I should have waited for a taller man. TORN

DEAR TORN: If the one-inch difference in height is such a serious source of concern to you now, you'd be wise to look for a taller fellow. You say a man's height shouldn't be THAT important, but face it, to you it is!

DEAR ABBY: Some time ago I foolishly shoplifted a small item from a department store. I was caught, arrested, and prosecuted. Now my name is permanently engraved in the police files. Soon I will be looking for a new job, which brings me to my problem. On every job application the question is: "Do you have a police record?" Or: "Have you ever been arrested?" I am not a criminal, and I feel that I have learned my lesson. I don't want to lie, but I don't want to spoil my chances for getting a job.

Should I say "No" to the question? The item I took was worth less than $5, which the store got back anyway, and for which I paid many times over in many ways. Must I pay for this mistake for the rest of my life? If I say "No," could a prospective employer press charges against me for falsifying an application?

Please help, Abby. Perhaps your answer could help other people in the same predicament. SORRY

DEAR SORRY: Don't compound your problem by adding yet another offense to it. Tell the truth, and accept the consequences.

Problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 6700, L. A., Calif. 90009. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-Agers Want to Know," send $1 to Abby, Box 6700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90009.

CHICKEN SOUP CREAM
1 chicken, cut up
1/2 cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1-3 cup shortening
1/2 cup sliced onions
1 can cream of chicken or cream of mushroom soup
1 cup sour cream
Cooked rice
Roll chicken in flour, salt and pepper. Brown. Place in roaster, top with sliced onions. Add one-third cup water to soup and pour over chicken. Simmer 50 minutes. Add a little water as it cooks, or it may get too dry.
Add sour cream five minutes before serving. Buttermilk may be used instead of sour cream. If two chickens are used, use one can cream of chicken soup and one can cream of mushroom soup.
Bake at 350 degrees until onions are done, about 50 minutes.

MR. AND MRS. JIM COX

Miss Will, Cox exchange vows

TWIN FALLS — Marie Eileen Will, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Will, became the bride of A. D. "Jim" Cox in evening rites June 9 at the Immanuel Lutheran Church, Twin Falls.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Cox, Caldwell.

The double ring nuptials were performed by Rev. R. J. Scholz, Buhl. Cathedral baskets of pink gladioli, orange carnations and orange roses decorated the altar.

Mrs. Debbie Bronson played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Cynthia Pool, the soloist. Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of silk organza and lace. The bodice was of lace with a bateau neckline edged with white seed pearls. Her chapel train of lace fell from the shoulders.

Her veil of bridal illusion was held by a crown of fabric flowers and white seed pearls and was made by her sister, Betty.

She carried a bouquet of pink and orange carnations and red-buds centered with a corsage of white gardenias, roses and carnations.

Betty Will, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Terry Williams, sister of the bride, and Linda Childers, cousin of the bride.

Flower girl was Tami Hessler, Boise, and ring bearer was Stacy Meyer, Pocatello, nephew of the bride.

Terry Williams was best man. Ushers were Jack Cox, California, brother of the groom, and Alvin Meyer, Pocatello.

A reception was held immediately after the wedding. Mrs. Alvin Meyer, Pocatello, sister of the bride, presided at the guest book.

The three-tier wedding cake, iced in white and decorated with orange roses and silver wedding bells topped with a bride and groom standing under silver bells, centered the refreshment table which was covered with a sheer skirt.

The first piece of wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom with the family wedding cake knife on which is engraved the names of the bride's sisters and their wedding dates.

Mrs. Lyle Fuller, Twin Falls, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Jan Klevmorn, Caldwell, sister of the groom, cut and served the wedding cake. Denni Hessler, Boise, presided at the coffee service. Shana Sellers, Hazelton, served the punch.

Quartet tables were covered with white cloths centered with baskets holding orange and white flowers encircling an orange candle.

Gifts were arranged by Mrs. Kent Kort, Burley, and Kevin and Bonnie Childers.

Special guests included Mrs. Irene Childers; Filer, the bride's grandmother, and Mrs. Sarah Evans, Caldwell, the groom's grandmother.

The couple will reside in Boise where the bride is employed by Graybar Electric.

Oswald: "The best way to play a key suit usually depends on how you as declarer expect the opponents' cards in that suit to be divided."

Jim: "In the absence of any information about distribution, the correct way for South to play diamonds is to lay down his ace. This play will hold his diamond losers to one if the suit breaks 2-2 or if East holds a singleton king or queen. It fails against three to the king-queen in either hand."

Oswald: "South ruffs the third club and draws trumps. He notes that West held seven clubs and three spades and is most unlikely to also hold three diamonds. He can check further by playing some hearts, so he cashes his king and leads a heart to dummy's ace."

Jim: "West follows to those two heart leads, which leaves him just one card that may be a diamond. If that card is the seven-spot, South must lose two diamond tricks. If it is the queen or king, South may get East to make a mistake and cover if the jack is led from dummy. If it is the 10-spot, it doesn't matter what East does. The jack lead from dummy will be the winning play."

Oswald: "After all that thought the jack of diamonds is led. East can duck or cover but South scores game and rubber."

Wimbledon begins today without top men players

LONDON (UPI) — After weeks of bitter wrangling, Wimbledon begins Monday with 73 of the world's top men players missing from the All-England lawn tennis championships and a host of new names unexpectedly bidding for a sudden chance at fame.

The crisis has passed — all but two players belonging to the Association of Tennis Professionals (ATP) have withdrawn because of an unrelated dispute with the International Lawn Tennis Federation over the suspension of Yugoslian Nikkili Pilić.

But although much of the men's talent will be missing, the tournament still will begin with all of the ritual which has made Wimbledon unique when the first ball is served at 9 a.m. EDT Monday.

The blue and crimson hydrangeas are potted, the strawberries ordered, and new turf laid on the center court where the organizers have seeded Romania's Ili Nastase to meet Jan Kodes of Czechoslovakia in the men's singles final.

Berning is winner in Heritage

SOUTHBRURY, Conn. (UPI) — Sue Berning shot a four-under-par 69 Sunday to win the LPGA Heritage Village Open by four strokes with a 12-underpar 207 total for 54 holes, the lowest score of the year on the tour.

Accurate putting again proved the difference in the Pasadena, Calif., housewife's final round. A crowd of 10,000 followed as Mrs. Berning added two strokes to her Saturday margin.

"Ever since Johnny Revolta gave me some putting lessons earlier this year in Florida, I've had confidence in my putting," she said. Her first and second rounds on the par 73 course were 68 and 70.

Mrs. Berning, the defending U.S. Women's Open champion, pocketed $4,500 for the first prize. Her best previous finish this year had been a third place.

Sandra Haynie, playing in the same threesome with Mrs. Berning, finished second with 211, eight under par here, also shooting a final round 69. Her purse was $3,400.

Mary Lou Crocker and Kathy Aherne, who had been tied for second going into Sunday's round, finished with 213 to tie for third with Jane Blalock. Miss Crocker, the first day leader, and Miss Aherne, shot 73s Sunday. Miss Blalock, celebrating an Atlanta judge's decision to lift her suspension from the LPGA, shot the lowest round of the day, a 68.

Officials, waiting to see what effect the boycott will have on attendance, have rewarded Naglase with the opening match on center court.

"If we got a few good games on Monday," said tournament referee Capt. Mike Gibson, "I think it will help to pick up public interest and the boycott will make little difference."

Depot Grill collects city title

Depot Grill-Turf Club, scoring all its runs on Vic Wells' misplayed baseball, defeated First Federal-Shuffle Inn 3-0 Sunday night to claim the Twin Falls slowpitch city championships.

Well's decisive blow came in the fourth inning after a pair of hits. His liner appeared to be an easy run-scoring single, but then was misplayed with the ball rolling all the way to the fence. All three runs scored.

First Federal-Shuffle, which battled through a "legion" of games since a defeat at the hands of Depot Grill Thursday night, never was able to muster a convincing threat.

Earlier in the day, First Federal-Shuffle eliminated Pepsi-Cola 13-6 before Depot Grill-Turf Club came back to beat Paris-Culligan 14-10 and gain the finals. First Federal-Shuffle then eliminated Paris-Culligan 9-5.

Rader leads Houston to doubleheader sweep

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Doug Rader and Bob Watson each drove in three runs as Houston defeated the San Francisco Giants, 8-3, to sweep a Sunday doubleheader. Rader also drove in the winning run in Houston's 7-6 victory in the first game.

The victory in the second game went to James Rodney Richard who held the Giants to one run in six innings before leaving the game with a sore elbow. San Francisco took the lead in the first inning on a single by Bobby Bonds, a stolen base, a wild pitch and a sacrifice fly by Tito Fuentes. Houston then scored three runs off losing pitcher Don Carlin.

Singles by Jim Wynn, Roger Metzger and catcher's choice loaded the bases in the third inning before Watson walked to force in a run.

Houston scored two more runs in the seventh inning on a double by Skip Jutze and singles by Metzger, Cecil Cedeno and Watson. The Astros went ahead 4-1 on Rader's home run leading off the eighth inning. It was his ninth of the season.

The Giants scored their other two runs off relief pitcher Jim York in the eighth inning on a single by Gary Maddox, a double by Gary Matthews and a single by Chris Speier.

Alumni win Silvertip bout again

The alumni led an expected finish in the tri-annual Silvertip match Sunday, defeating three other foursomes in a special exhibition at Twin Falls municipal golf course.

It was the second straight victory for the lineup that won the first event three years ago when they came into the event fresh out of high school and a second straight state golf championship.

The alumni carded a 278 while the current Bruins, also state champions, were two strokes back. The Silvertips finished at 281 while the Elvis generation carded a 287 for fourth.

The medalist honors were co-shared among Clyde Thomsen of the Silvertips, Jeff Thomsen of the Alumni and Bruce McNeen of the Bruins, all at one-under par 70.

For a while, it appeared the Elvis generation might make a serious run, largely on a great front nine by Dick Reed. Reed opened with two birdies and then displayed a fantastic iron game that could as easily have led him to a 26 as the 32 he wound up with. However, the

Twins, Angels divide pair

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (UPI) — Pinchhitter Winston Lomas singled in two runs in the ninth inning to give Clyde Wright and California a 3-0 victory and a split of the doubleheader with the Minnesota Twins Sunday.

Minnesota won the first game 5-1 on Dick Woodson's seven-inning hit.

With two-out in the Angel ninth inning, Bill Grabarkewicz drew a walk off reliever Ray Corbin. Rudi Meoli reached first base and moved Grabarkewicz to second when Rod Carew fumbled his ground ball.

Pinchhitter Tom McGraw drew a walk to load the bases, and Lomas then singled home Grabarkewicz and Meoli. Vada Pinson followed with a single to score McGraw.

Members of the winning team were Jeff and Curt Thomsen, Larry Malone, Robert Langdon and Jim Packard.

Kansas City wins pair from Texas

KANSASCITY (UPI) — Run-scoring singles by Bobby Floyd and Fran Healy and a wild pitch provided a three-run third inning Sunday, propelling the Kansas City Royals to a 10-6 victory, a sweep of their doubleheader with the Texas Rangers and sole possession of first place in the American League West.

John Mayberry crashed a two-run triple, tapping a four-run fifth inning, as the Royals cruised to a 7-4 victory in the opener behind the nine-hit

Johncock leads race qualifiers

MOUNT POCONO, Pa. (UPI) — Gordon Johncock, winner of the rain-shortened Indianapolis 500, led the field Sunday as six more drivers qualified for next Sunday's Schaefer 500 before rain closed Pocono International Raceway for the day.

Johncock posted a time of 1:07.578 mph to gain his spot in the race. Peter Revson won the pole position Saturday with a record speed of 100.648.

Bruce Crampton fires 68 for American classic win

AKRON, Ohio (UPI) — Bruce Crampton came from three shots behind Sunday with a two-under-par 68 to win the $100,000 American Golf Classic by three strokes with a 72-hole score of 273.

Atlanta tops San Diego 6-1

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — Ralph Garr broke up a pitching duel with the first grand slam homer of his major league career in the eighth inning Sunday to give the Atlanta Braves a 6-1 victory over the San Diego Padres Sunday.

Cepeda powers Boston victory

BOSTON (UPI) — Designated hitter Orlando Cepeda, returning from a back injury, homered for the only run Sunday to give John Curtis and the Boston Red Sox a 1-0 win over the Baltimore Orioles and a split of their four-game series.

Chicago blanks St. Louis 2-0

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Superb five-hit pitching by right-hander Milt Pappas and a two-run eighth inning single by pinch-hitter Glenn Beckert enabled the Chicago Cubs to beat St. Louis 2-0 Sunday.

Oakland splits pair with Sox

CHICAGO (UPI) — Ed Herrmann drove in seven runs with a home run, double, and single to lead the Chicago White Sox to an 11-1 rout over Oakland Sunday in the second half of a doubleheader after A's pitcher Vida Blue recorded a 7-0 shutout in the opener.

Phil's outlast Montreal Expos

MONTREAL (UPI) — Tom Hutton, Bob Boone and Cesar Tovar hit bases-empty home runs Sunday as the Philadelphia Phillies whipped the Montreal Expos, 5-4, for Jim Lonborg's fifth victory of the season.

Oakland's Blue Moon Odom

Oakland's Blue Moon Odom, who dropped his ninth game against one victory, was the victim of Herrmann's fifth homer of the year wallup in the second inning. Oakland got a run back in the sixth on Reggie Jackson's 14th homer of the year.

Dodgers defeat Cincinnati 5-2

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Ken McMullen, playing because of an injury to rookie Ron Cey, drove in three runs with a homer and a single as the red-hot Los Angeles Dodgers came from behind to beat the Cincinnati Reds 5-2 for their ninth victory in their last 10 games Sunday.

Atlanta tops San Diego 6-1

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Superb five-hit pitching by right-hander Milt Pappas and a two-run eighth inning single by pinch-hitter Glenn Beckert enabled the Chicago Cubs to beat St. Louis 2-0 Sunday.

Oakland splits pair with Sox

CHICAGO (UPI) — Ed Herrmann drove in seven runs with a home run, double, and single to lead the Chicago White Sox to an 11-1 rout over Oakland Sunday in the second half of a doubleheader after A's pitcher Vida Blue recorded a 7-0 shutout in the opener.

Open in May, took the lead Sunday with his third birdie of the day on the par-four sixth hole.

While Crampton was picking up shots, Fozler, who didn't have a bogey during the first two rounds, dropped three strokes on the front nine, getting a bogey on No. 1 and a double bogey six on the eighth.

Porter leads Milwaukee win

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Darrell Porter collected three hits, scored three runs and drove in three runs to lead the Milwaukee Brewers to an 8-3 win over the Cleveland Indians Sunday.

The win was the Brewers' third straight and the 10th loss in their last 24 games for the Indians.

Chris Short, the second of four Brewer pitchers, relieved starter Bill Parsons in the first and pitched scoreless ball for 6 2/3 innings to earn his third win against one defeat while Dick Bosman took his seventh loss against two wins.

Porter drove in the Brewers' first run with a single in the fifth, singled in the fourth and doubled home two runs in the fifth.

The Brewers went ahead 2-1 in the second.

Lonborg, who has lost six games, worked 7 2/3 innings, scattered seven hits while walking three and striking out four. Billy Wilson came on to earn his fourth save of the season.

The Phillies also scored a run in the third inning when Greg Luzinski singled, driving in Tovar who had walked.

Mets defeat Pittsburgh 5-2

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Tom Seaver settled down after a shaky first inning to pitch an eight-hitter and Ed Kranepool drove in three runs with a pair of doubles Sunday as the New York Mets defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 5-2.

Seaver, returning to the Mets' rotation after missing a turn due to an ailing back, boosted his record to 9-1 and regained the National League knockout lead with six strikeouts, running his total to 105.

He was in trouble only in the first when Willie Stargell, the major league home run leader, cracked his 22nd homer, a towering 400-foot blast to center field that followed Al Oliver's two-out single and tied the game 2-2.

Thereafter Seaver limited the last place Pirates to six singles and a walk and did not allow a baserunner past first base.

Brewer, who started the day tied with Crampton at five-under-par, also had trouble, picking up a bogey on the 500-yard par five second hole, considered a birdie hole.

Murphy and Wadkins made belated runs at the leader, but the best either could do was their final four-under-par score. Murphy had a 67 and Wadkins a 68 in the final round.

Brewer, Wadkins and Murphy each collected $12,373 for their second place tie, while Weiskopf and Fozler got $8,160 apiece.

Crampton's win was his 14th on the tour and gave him career earnings of $985,652, No. 5 on the all-time list.

Yankees defeat Detroit twice, continue streak

NEW YORK (UPI) — Graig Nettles slammed his 12th homer of the year 350 feet into the rightfield stands with one out in the bottom of the ninth before 62,107 fans on Ball Day Sunday to give the New York Yankees a 2-1 decision for their eighth straight victory and a sweep of their Sunday doubleheader with the Detroit Tigers.

Bobby Murcer drove in one run and scored another and Fred Beane pitched four innings of one-hit relief ball to give New York a 3-2 triumph in the first game. This is the first time the Yankees have won eight straight games since 1969.

Rich Reese opened the second game for Detroit by hitting the first pitch into the rightfield stands for his first homer of the season. New York tied the score in the third. With two down, Horace Clarke reached on an error by Aurelio

Rodriguez, moved to third on Roy White's single and scored on Thurman Munson's single.

Bear hug

SOVIET PARTY LEADER Leonid Brezhnev is hugged by actor Chuck Connors at departure ceremonies Sunday at the Western White House, San Clemente, Calif. The display of affection came at Brezhnev's departure after a week of summit talks with President Nixon.

Soviet's words bring reaction

By United Press International
A large number of people wanted him off the air because he was a Communist. One man thought it a sign of peace and another said he was a lot better than "Stalin or the man who waved his boots."

The unprecedented televised speech of Leonid Brezhnev Sunday brought a variety of strong reactions from viewers. A spot check of television stations across the country showed that people either responded to the Soviet leader with enthusiasm or disliked him violently.

In Seattle, Wash., television stations reported 16 calls from irate citizens who wanted Brezhnev's 47-minute speech taken off the air because he was Communist. Viewers in Salt Lake City, Utah, were also unhappy with the broadcast, complaining that it was "too long" or that they were "tired of being sold out to Russia, even on television."

Others were concerned about missing their favorite TV shows when the face of the Soviet leader suddenly flashed onto the screen instead of "I Dream of Jeannie." One man in Sacramento, Calif., called up to complain "Where's the Lawrence Walk Show. You couldn't trust that guy (Brezhnev) as far as you can throw him."

The reception in Portland, Ore., was better; the majority of viewers liked Brezhnev's talk to the American people.

"He's a wonderful politician and I thought the way he delivered was the smoothest thing I've ever seen," said R.E. Garland. "After Stalin and the guy who waved his boots it sounds like he wants to do business. Maybe they've figured it out after 39 years."

"It seems a sign of peace when the greatest leaders get together," said a Chicago man. "It seemed to me it was a pretty good thing."

Botulism poisoning kills Nyssa man

BOISE (UPI) — An Oregon man who was brought to a Boise hospital five days ago suffering from botulism died Saturday night shortly before midnight.

A spokesman at St. Alphonsus Hospital said Anselmo Sifuentes, 69, Nyssa, died at 10:35 p.m.

Sifuentes and his daughter, Racquel Gonzales, 32, were brought to the hospital Tuesday night when they became ill after eating home-canned peppers.

Wednesday a three-pound baby was born to the Nyssa woman. A spokesman at St. Luke's Hospital, where the baby was transferred, said the child remained in critical condition.

Mrs. Gonzales also was reported in critical condition at St. Alphonsus.

Meanwhile, Dr. John Mather, head of the preventive medicine section of the Department of Environmental and Community Services, said his department already has planned an information campaign this summer against the dangers of botulism in home canning.

World competitors F & G decentralizes

BOISE — An Idaho Falls youngster and one from Boise left for Washington, D. C. Sunday on the first leg of a journey which will lead them to the World Games for the Deaf in Malmö, Sweden.

The two teenagers are Steve McCulley, Boise, and John Hunter, Idaho Falls. McCulley, the Idaho high school record holder in the two mile run, and Hunter qualified for the deaf games last year and had to raise $2,000 apiece to cover expenses to Malmö.

The World Games are scheduled to begin July 21 and will run for one week.

BOISE (UPI) — The Idaho Fish and Game Department goes regional on July 1 and joins other major state agencies in a move toward decentralization.

The change is designed to bring the services closer to the people.

Most of the state agencies utilize, or will use, six regions devised and bounded by the state Planning and Community Affairs Agency.

Glenn Nichols, director of the state planning agency, said the regions can provide a single "umbrella organization" for planning and administration at all government levels.

The Fish and Game Department will divide its six regions on the boundaries proposed by the planning agency. Supervisors in the six regions will be given some, but not all, of the powers of the department director.

Idaho station closed Wed.

AMERICAN FALLS, Idaho (UPI) — A large American Falls truck stop that specializes in fueling cross-country diesel rigs has been turning away more than 100 trucks a day since it went dry Wednesday.

Manager Don Bliesner said Lakeview Truck Stop went dry 10 days short of its next scheduled delivery.

"Ninety per cent of the trucks we serve are hauling food stuffs," Bliesner said.

Lakeview is one of two big truck stops on Interstate-15 at the edge of American Falls. The Conoco Station sold 1.75 million gallons of diesel fuel last year.

The manager said the station in American Falls is a key stop for trucks traveling between California and Canada.

"It's terribly frustrating," he said. "It has taken nine years to develop our trade."

Although out of diesel fuel, Bliesner still has gasoline, and he said he would keep his 10 employees on to keep the station open 24 hours a day.

"We warned as many of our customers as we could," Bliesner said. "Their reaction towards us is okay, but they're not happy with our supplier."

Bliesner said his supplier oversold his quota to him during the first six months of 1973. Now, for the rest of the year, they promise him monthly deliveries equalling about 65 per cent of 1972 deliveries.

He said more than 100 trucks a day stop at the station, and each purchases up to 120 gallons of diesel fuel.

Manager of a neighboring Standard Oil Station said his diesel fuel would be exhausted quickly if it supplies trucks turned away by Lakeview.

"We've tried everywhere and every way to buy more diesel fuel," Bliesner said. "We were offered one little dab, but it wouldn't have lasted a day, and it was too far away."

The manager said his supplier gave him a quota of 94 per cent of last year's sales. However, he said his sales are up this year in an amount equal to average growth.

Referendum vote eyed in Blaine

HAILEY — The counsel for defense of the Wood River Valley has sent a letter containing 90 signatures to Robert P. McCulloch Jr., president of McCulloch Properties Inc., notifying him of their intent to call for a referendum vote.

According to Robert Ward, Hailey, spokesman for the group, the letter says the signors also intend to sign the necessary petitions to push for a referendum vote after July 1 to overturn the Hailey city council's decision to annex the 650 acre McCulloch development site.

The group previously submitted a letter to McCulloch containing 80 signatures. However, under a change in state statute about 10 additional signatures were required for a referendum election.

Ward said the group will also schedule a work session for this week to plan strategy for the election.

The group, he said, is seeking monetary and voluntary support from the community. Interested residents may contact Ward at 788-4556 or Sharon Parker, 788-594.

Reception set

JEROME — Service clubs in Jerome in cooperation with the Jerome Chamber of Commerce will extend special recognition to Sharon Davis, Miss Idaho, Friday.

A special reception in Miss Davis' honor is planned at 8 p.m. at Wood Cafe at which time the public is invited to meet her and extend their best wishes.

Jerome Mayor Jack Russell will proclaim the day "Sharon Davis Day." A gift also will be presented to Miss Davis at the Friday night reception.

Miss Davis, who won the coveted Miss Idaho title at the state pageant in Boise, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Davis, Jerome. She represented Twin Falls in the state competition.

Upon returning from Boise she was given a parade throughout downtown Twin Falls and a special reception was held for her at the Rogerson Hotel.

Jerome man named

JEROME — Al Whitby has been appointed chairman of a study group appointed to obtain views of citizens on development of Jerome.

The group will meet to formulate a questionnaire to submit to citizens of Jerome to secure answers to the community's growth pattern and problems.

Public opinions sought on Rupert improvements

By ROBERT SCHLEEF
Times-News writer

RUPERT — A public hearing is planned by city officials Tuesday evening to hear community opinions on a proposed improvement district.

As the matter now stands before the City Council, the cost of the improvements will be borne by the city, the county and the property owners involved.

According to estimates made by Ron Klebe, city engineer, the city will pay $5,007.02 for new curbing along the east side of H Street between Eighth and 11th streets.

The county will pay about $5,342.60 for widening the south side of Eighth Street between G and H streets.

It will cost six property owners about $821.60 each to widen G Street between Eighth and Ninth streets on the west side and to widen Eighth Street between G and H streets. Total for seven lots is about $5,781.62.

These city and county residents will be paying for curbing, asphalt and gravel, and curb, sod and tree removal. Nine trees will be taken from the courthouse block along Eighth Street, and two trees removed from G Street.

On June 5, councilmen William Strasser and Clark Cameron reported to the City Council that most of the residents involved had been contacted and that general feeling about the project was good.

When asked this past week, four of the six residents in the improvement district had misgivings about the project. Two of the property owners were unavailable for comment.

Ed Stevens, 809 G Street, said, "I am 100 per cent against the improvement district. As I see it, all that is happening is that we are paying for more parking space to be put in along our side of the street and at our expense."

Robert Sheen, 801 G Street, says he was visited by councilman George McDonald about the improvement district and that he told McDonald that he thought the project was fine. "Since then," he said, "I've heard some rumors and stories, which I won't repeat because I don't want any slander, but I think I'm going to say no to the project now."

Kesl Severe, 823 G Street, was contacted by Councilman McDonald. Mrs. Severe said that she and her husband feel "just dreadful" about the whole thing. "They will take out sprinklers we just put in last year so that we wouldn't have irrigation water running down the street to comply with the city's request, that cost $600. And our two beautiful maple trees in our yard will be taken out and the trees over at the corner will go if the project passes."

Scott Howard, 724 Eighth Street, says he doesn't like to see the trees on the courthouse grounds taken out. "They look good there." As for the cost of the widening, "$400 is a lot of money," he says.

Elmer Ketterling, Minidoka County commission chairman, says that the county has had an understanding with the city of Rupert that predates the death of previous commission chairman Wayne Hollenbeck, that if the city decides to widen Eighth Street the county will pay its part.

Ketterling says that the agreement still stands. He says that there may be some landscaping done on the courthouse grounds in near future and some new trees planted.

County commissioner Lyle Barton said that the best thing is to wait and see what will take place Tuesday, but stated that he "can't see the percentage of widening just one block" referring to Eighth Street between G and H streets.

2 California youths arrested

JEROME — The Jerome Police Department reported Saturday that two California youths were arrested Thursday for possession of a controlled substance.

Sam Whiteside and Kevin Fekkey, both 18, Whittier, Calif., were arrested Thursday afternoon at Towles Motel in Jerome and charged with possession of a controlled substance.

Both youths were arrested Wednesday with another California youth, 19 year old Charles Burnell by Idaho State Police near Devil's Corral. Felley and Whiteside were charged with illegal consumption of beer and Burnell with driving while under the influence.

They were taken to Jerome County courthouse where Whiteside and Felley posted $4250 bond and were released. Burnell was sentenced to 30 days in jail and fined $250 with $100 remitted. He remained in jail.

Whiteside and Felley were then arrested again Thursday by Jerome police for possession of a controlled substance. The pair pled guilty in magistrate court and bond was set at $300. Sentence was withheld pending a presentence investigation.

Felley posted the $300 bond and was released while Whiteside remains in Jerome County jail in lieu of bond.

Tuesday party

SUN VALLEY — Employees of Sun Valley and Elk Horn who donate blood today in the summer Blaine County blood drawing will be feted Tuesday.

The barbecue party at Trail Creek is scheduled for 6 p.m. Tuesday, instead of Thursday as previously announced. Donor cards, and company identification will be required for admission.

Sun Valley Co. officials helped load and unload the Red Cross mobile blood unit as well as staffing the unit during today's drawing, according to Bessie Bentley, chairman.

The drawing will be held from 2 to 6 p.m. today at the Our Lady of the Snows Catholic Church in Ketchum.

Gooding man, son receive injuries

BURLEY — A Gooding man and his son received minor injuries early Saturday evening when the pickup they were riding in and trailer in tow rolled, on Interstate 80.

James V. Muscut, 54, driver of the pickup, and his son, Clark Muscut, 15, were taken to Cassia Memorial Hospital where they were treated and released. James Muscut complained of right leg and back injuries, his son was treated for hip and chest injuries he received when he was pinned between the right side of the pickup and travel trailer.

According to witnesses the pickup and trailer were east bound on Interstate 80 and had just rounded a curve about two miles west of Burley when the wind picked up the trailer and rolled it and pickup into the ditch.

The pickup, a 1967 Ford, received $250 in damages. Patrolman Dee Davis said the travel trailer was demolished.

Vandalism probed

SHOSHONE — Police are investigating leads into a vandalism incident at a Shoshone grocery store where plate glass windows were broken during the weekend.

Police Chief John Shaffer said that vandals smashed the windows at Mike's Cold Storage Plant. Damage is estimated at more than $800.

Shaffer said large rocks were thrown through the windows.

3,020 acres burn Sunday

GLENN'S FERRY (UPI) — Bureau of Land Management officials said today 3,020 acres of sagebrush and grassland have been burned in what appears to be a man-caused fire.

The fire was reported by a BLM lookout at 12:43 p.m. Sunday and brought under control about 11 p.m. It was located 10 miles south of Glenn's Ferry in the Grindstone Butte Area.

Crews operating seven ground tankers and five crawler trucks were scheduled to be released today, while the cause of the blaze remains under investigation.

Awards given at show

FILER — Silver supreme awards were presented in classes of the four show series of the Idaho Paint Horse Show which ended Sunday at the fairgrounds.

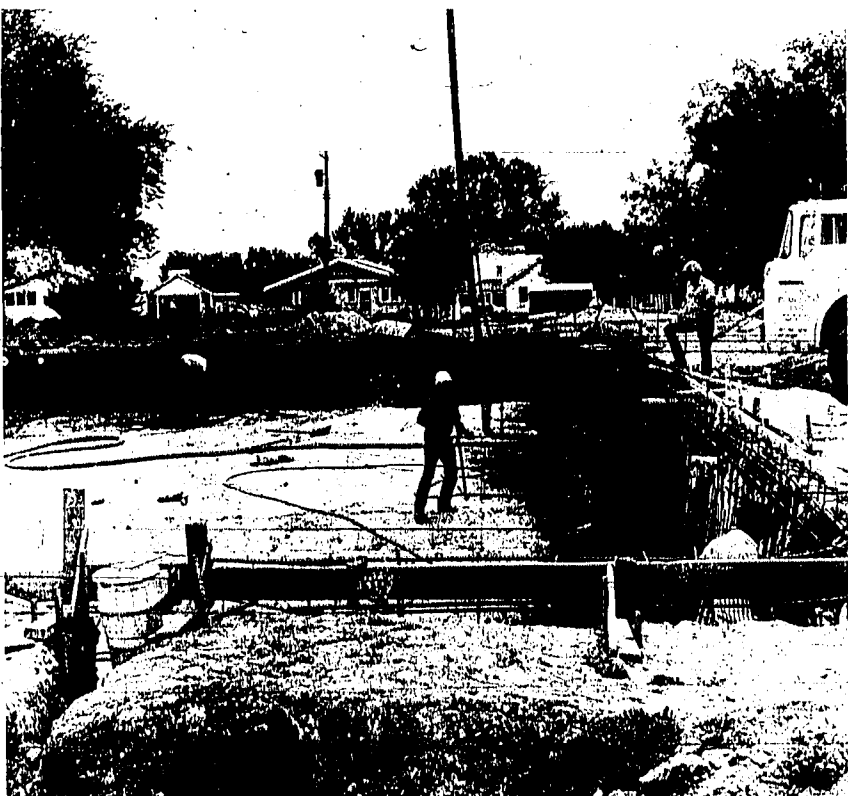

Other circuit shows in the Northwest include Allensburg, Wash., and Grants Pass, Ore., this week, and one in Ogden, Utah, July 13.

Silver Supreme awards were presented to high point winners of four show series totals in each halter and performance classes, also to high point stallion, high point mare, high point gelding and high point youth.

High point winner

KRISTI REALS, Phoenix, Ariz., received the silver plate for high point winner in the youth trail class. Riders 18 years and under participated in this class, one of the most intricate of the show. With two sets of judges each day of the two-day shows, points equal to four shows were added to find winners of each class in the Idaho Paint Horse Show held Saturday and Sunday at the Twin Falls County Fairgrounds.

Filer swimming pool

WORKMEN from the George Taylor Placemant Co., Boise, are shown blowing the gunite over the foundation of the Filer swimming pool in the Filer City Park. Final completion of the pool is set for the Fourth of July.

DOUGLAS SHRUM

Elmore youth named

GLENNIS FERRY — Paul Douglas Shrum, a 1972 graduate of Glennis Ferry High School, has been appointed to the United States Air Force Academy.

Paul, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shrum, Glennis Ferry, was selected on the basis of the results of the College Board examination and other competitive tests. He will report to the academy at Colorado Springs about July 7.

At Glennis Ferry High School, Paul was active in athletics and attended Boys State in 1971. Most recently he attended Treasure Valley Community College in Ontario, Ore.

Sen. Frank Church, in announcing the appointment, said that "Paul Shrum reflects the high standards and discipline of our young people of Idaho, who are our future leaders."

Lincoln office transferred

SHOSHONE — The Lincoln County Selective Service office was transferred to Twin Falls Saturday.

The Selective Service system goes onto a standby basis after July 1 when the 1971 Selective Service Act expires. Involuntary inductions were terminated in January by the President, but unless congressional action renews the induction authority, Selective Service will continue only to register and classify youths who become 18 years of age.

The Shoshone office board will continue to meet for classification purposes. The files will be moved to the Twin Falls office, one of six area offices remaining in the state. Mrs. Mary Van Hook is the new secretary of the area office with Mrs. Frances Burkett, Shoshone, her assistant. One of these women will attend future Lincoln County board meetings.

Advisers to registrars are Elmer I. Terry and Gerald Frees, Shoshone.

Shoshone youth gets scholarship

SHOSHONE — Tom Dallas, Shoshone, has been awarded a $200 scholarship by the ISU scholarship club.

The club was established by the Pocatello Chamber of Commerce in 1968 to encourage Idaho high school graduates to pursue their higher education within the state.

The club traditionally makes an intensive drive for funds each spring and through contributions of organizations and individuals, has so far awarded more than $240,000 to students entering the college.

Confirmation of the scholarship is contingent upon enrollment at ISU.

Profit check beginning

(The New York Times News Service)

WASHINGTON — A profit check of all companies with annual sales of more than $50 million has begun across the country according to the cost of Living Council.

The check, of costs, profits and price data of about 3,100 firms, which will be conducted by the council and the Internal Revenue Service, comes in response to a directive by President Nixon when he announced the current price freeze on June 13.

The companies will be examined to assure compliance with Phase 3 controls and to provide raw data for development of Phase 4, which the President has said will begin by Aug. 13.

About 800 firms with more than $250 million in sales, called their one companies, were required to submit "detailed information" to the council by June 21. Similar information must also be filed by 2,300 tier two companies, those with sales between $50 million and $250 million, by June 30.

While companies which fail to file the forms will be subject to "immediate prosecution," firms exceeding Phase 3 profit margins or which have unjustifiably increased prices, according to the data they file, will be forced to roll back prices.

At a news conference Friday, whose contents were embargoed until today, William N. Walker, acting deputy director of the council, said that a preliminary audit of forms filed by tier one companies will begin this week. Concurrently, Internal Revenue agents will make a preliminary audit of tier two firms.

The tier two firms, some of whose Phase 2 reports, Walker said, were of "poor quality," agents this week. The agents the reporting requirements and offer assistance in meeting the requirements.

LEGAL NOTICE

TO ALL PRESENT AND FORMER ANNUAL RATE REGULAR POSTAL EMPLOYEES AND THE REPRESENTATIVES OF DECEASED ANNUAL RATE REGULAR POSTAL EMPLOYEES REGARDING POSSIBLE ENTITLEMENT TO BACK WAGES

This notice is published in conformity with a Consent Order entered August 26, 1971 by the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in settlement of Civil Actions Nos. 389-69 and 395-69. Its purpose is to bring the attention of all persons who were full-time annual rate regular employees of the United States Postal Service (as used herein the term "Postal Service" includes the former Post Office Department) at any time between approximately March 4, 1965 and January 7, 1972, as well as representatives of such employees who are now deceased. The settlement involves the recovery of back wages for overtime under Public Law 89-301, for temporary re-scheduling under the conditions set forth under paragraph I-A below. This notice is intended to advise such persons of their rights regarding this matter. It should be read carefully.

The lawsuits described above were filed on December 19, 1969 as "class actions" on behalf of all such present and former annual rate regular postal employees. The named plaintiffs in these suits are certain individual postal employees and the following postal labor unions: American Postal Workers Union, AFL-CIO; Mail Handlers Division of the Laborers' International Union, AFL-CIO; and the National Association of Letter Carriers, AFL-CIO.

I. SUMMARY OF THE CONSENT ORDER ENTERED IN THE "CLASS ACTIONS"

The Consent Order establishes rules regarding the payment of back wages to those present and former postal employees for the representatives of deceased postal employees who were entitled to, but did not receive, time and one-half for work performed outside of their regular schedule as a result of a required temporary schedule change as set forth below. 4. Complete statement of these rules is not set forth in this notice. The following rules represent only the basic conditions which apply to the claims. Detailed Operating Instructions and the Consent Order will be available to potential claimants as indicated in paragraph I below.

A. Qualification for Back Wages under "Class Action" Consent Order

1. For the period from approximately March 4, 1965 to January 7, 1972, annual rate regulars were entitled to overtime wages under Public Law 89-301 for work performed during days or hours outside of their regular schedule as a result of a required temporary schedule change, unless the schedule change occurred while they were occupying any of the following positions: (1) postmaster; (2) rural carrier; (3) postal inspector; (4) lead duty employee (as defined in 39 U.S.C. Sec. 10371-1962); (5) substitute employee; (6) hourly rate regular employee; (7) annual rate regulars who, between March 4, 1965 and July 29, 1966, were in salary level PFS-8 and above; (8) annual rate regulars who, between July 29, 1966 and October 6, 1967, were in salary level PFS-11 and above; (9) annual rate regulars who, after October 6, 1967, were in salary level PFS-12 and above or equivalent levels.

2. Any temporary schedule change on the part of an annual rate regular which was not made at his request for his convenience is a "required schedule change" for which the employee is entitled to overtime compensation for work performed outside of his regular schedule, without regard to the nature of the work performed under the temporary schedule. Temporary schedule changes made at an employee's request for his convenience are not compensable at the overtime rate.

B. Claims Procedure Under "Class Action" Consent Order

1. The Consent Order establishes procedures for the filing of claims by present employees, former employees and the representatives of deceased employees who assert entitlement to overtime back wages under paragraph A above.

2. Claims Procedure for Present Employees

(a) As soon as practical after July 30, 1973, all present employees will be notified by their installation head that their time records are available for examination. In most cases these records date back to the first pay period in which regular work schedules were assigned under Public Law 89-301, and end with the pay period terminating on January 7, 1972.

(b) Each present employee is entitled to be excused from his normal tour of duty for up to one hour to review his time records and will be compensated for that hour at his straight time rate of compensation. In addition, he may remove his records from the installation for the purpose of such review.

(c) Special claim forms will be available in all postal installations. It will be necessary for the employee to indicate on the claim form those hours for which he believes he is entitled to recover overtime back wages.

(d) An employee's failure to file a claim with his installation head within 90 days of receipt of notice that his time records are available for inspection will waive his right to present a claim. However, upon good cause shown, the time for filing a claim shall be extended.

(e) An employee may submit a claim even though his time records are no longer available.

(f) After an employee has submitted his claim, the local installation head will review it to determine whether the claim should be approved for payment. If the claim is denied, the employee will be entitled to appeal.

3. Procedure for Former Employees and the Representatives of Deceased Employees

Essentially, the same rules apply to claims by former employees and representatives of deceased employees, with the following exceptions:

(a) The Postal Service will attempt to notify former annual rate regulars of their rights in this matter by forwarding a copy of this notice to their last known address on file with the United States Civil Service Commission or the appropriate Postal Service Data Center.

(b) Any former employee, or the representative of a deceased employee, who receives this notice from the Postal Service by mail must request access to the employee's time records in writing within 60 days of receiving such notice or waive his right to present a claim.

(c) Any former employee, or the representative of a deceased employee, who does not receive a copy of this notice from the Postal Service by mail must request access to the employee's time records within three years of July 1, 1973, or waive his right to present a claim.

(d) The time records of former employees are located at the post offices and postal installations where these employees worked. Accordingly, a former employee or a representative of a deceased employee may request access to such records (1) by visiting, or writing directly to, the head of each post office or postal installation where the employee was employed, or (2) by asking any local postmaster for assistance in obtaining such records. When making the request, a former employee must identify himself as a former postal employee who is requesting access to his time records under the "Consent Order Procedure," and must state his name, social security number, and the post office(s) or postal installation(s) where he worked. The representative of a deceased employee should follow the same procedure with regard to the deceased employee involved and must also indicate on what basis he or she is acting as the deceased employee's representative.

(e) Upon receiving notice from the Postal Service that the records are available for examination, a former employee or the representative of a deceased employee must submit his claim as provided in paragraphs B(1)-(4) of this notice.

C. Notification of Determination of Claims

1. The installation head or his designee will notify the claimant in writing of the disposition of his claim within 90 days of the date the claim is filed. Failure to notify the claimant of a determination of the claim within 90 days will constitute automatic approval of the entire claim. If a claim is denied, the decision will state the reasons for denial.

2. If, within 30 days of receipt of the written decision regarding the claim, the claimant fails to advise the Postal Service official who signed the decision that he either (1) accepts the decision in full, or (2) rejects the decision in full, he will be deemed to have accepted the decision in full.

3. If the claimant rejects the decision, he may appeal in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Operating Instructions.

4. Employees who remain part of the class and also remain represented by counsel for the named plaintiffs shall be bound by such counsel's decisions regarding the settlement or other disposition of claims.

D. Payment of Claims

When a final decision has been made to pay the claim, the claimant will promptly receive payment from the Postal Service in accordance with the decision.

E. Additional Information

Additional information regarding the contents of this notice may be obtained from Donald M. Murtha, Esquire, counsel for plaintiffs, Department P, Suite 703, 1828 N. Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036. A copy of the Consent Order may be obtained by writing to Mr. Clyde Wilson, Claims Administrator, Room 1512, U.S. Postal Service Headquarters, 12th & Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20260. The Operating Instructions and claim forms will be available in postal installations when the claims procedure is implemented.

F. ELECTIONS AVAILABLE TO MEMBERS OF THE CLASS

The Consent Order declares that the named plaintiffs are proper representatives of the entire class of present and former postal employees entitled to recover overtime back wages under Public Law 89-301. Under the Consent Order and Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, members of the class are entitled to be advised that the following elections are available to them:

A. Any person who claims entitlement to overtime back wages under Public Law 89-301, but does not wish to participate in this "class action" as his individual claim is not within the reach of Rule 23(b)(1) or (2), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, such exclusion must be requested by letter addressed to the undersigned at P.O. Box 278, Ben Franklin Station, Washington, D.C.

20044, postmarked not later than midnight, July 15, 1973. Any person who does not elect to be so excluded will be fully bound by the settlement in this litigation. A person who elects to be so excluded from the class will be free subject to the adjudication of issues within the reach of Rule 23(b)(1) or (2), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, to pursue whatever individual legal remedies he may have. If he should independently recover back wages under Public Law 89-301, he may nevertheless be required under law to pay attorney fees to the counsel who initiated these "class actions."

B. If a person does not so request exclusion from the class by July 15, 1973, he will automatically be included in the class, and his entitlement will be determined under the Consent Order and any subsequent orders the court may enter in the matter, and he will be bound thereby.

C. If any such person does not request exclusion from this "class action" litigation, but elects to be represented by his own counsel rather than by counsel for the named plaintiffs, his counsel must enter an appearance in this litigation not later than July 15, 1973.

III. FINAL HEARING PRIOR TO THE COURT ENTERING PARTIAL FINAL JUDGMENT

The Consent Order directed that under I above was entered into with a view to effecting the expeditious processing of all the individual claims involved in this class-action litigation. The Court has now preliminarily entered (in accordance with Rule 23(d), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) a further Order and Decision implementing the Consent Order which (1) approves the detailed operating instructions under the Consent Order, and (2) determines several legal issues pertinent to implementation of the Consent Order, as to which parties were unable to reach agreement.

The detailed operating instructions under the Consent Order have been designated as "Back Pay Claims Instructions, etc." The Court will conduct a Final Hearing on all issues which have been decided by the Court in this litigation, in Courtroom 22, United States Court House, 3d Street and Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. at 10:00 a.m. on July 30, 1973. Any person claiming to be a member of the class who wishes to be heard in this matter by an attorney other than the attorneys who represent the original plaintiffs in this litigation will be afforded due opportunity to be heard thereat by his attorney, provided his attorney so notifies the undersigned Clerk of Court in writing prior to July 15, 1973.

The Court will upon conclusion of this hearing enter an order effecting partial Final Judgment disposing of all issues which have been decided as of the date of such Final Judgment, subject to the Court, upon being advised by the parties that all aspects of the controversy have been settled, entering the Final Judgment contemplated by the Consent Order, as heretofore amended.

The parties have reached agreement to submit to final and binding arbitration individual disputes remaining upon conclusion of the U.S. Postal Service's processing and decision as to the individual claims, in lieu of court proceedings thereafter.

The Consent Order and Implementing Order and Decision and the parties' agreement for final and binding arbitration as finally approved by the Court upon conclusion of the indicated Final Hearing will govern the processing of all individual claims, including any arbitration proceedings.

IV. COUNSEL FEES AND EXPENSES

The matter of counsel fees and expenses for services heretofore rendered by counsel bringing this action and of counsel fees and expenses for services which may be rendered hereafter by original or other counsel will be determined by the Court after the date of the Final Hearing.

V. COMMUNICATION WITH COURT TO BE ONLY BY PLEADING OR MOTION

Any person wishing further information about this litigation may communicate with Donald M. Murtha, Esq., counsel for plaintiffs, whose address is set forth under I E above. All communication with the Court shall be by formal pleading or motion, with copies thereof served upon counsel for the parties. PLEASE DO NOT WRITE OR CALL THE COURT.

Horoscope

FORECAST FOR TUESDAY, JUNE 26, 1973

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day to make sure you have everything pertaining to money and property in correct perspective since the aspects are not important for new ideas or visionary matters. Financial and business situations should be carefully handled.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Study debts and credits and see how to make wiser investments. Make sure you do routine tasks with efficiency. The evening is excellent for attending a social event you enjoy.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Study your appearance well and see where you can make improvements. If you need health treatments, take them. Attend the social tonight and make big headway in right circles.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Find out what it is that is keeping you from getting ahead and do something about it. A friend in trouble needs your assistance so be sure to give it. Control your temper at all times.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) You are now able to receive aid you need from a good friend for a project you have in mind. Showing affection for friends brings the right results now. Avoid a troublemaker.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) If you show higher-ups that you are an excellent citizen, you can get the cooperation you will need for a civic affair. Make certain to increase your rating by paying bills on time.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You are able to obtain the data you need now so you can start expanding and gain the support of associates. Plan time to make new contacts for the help you need in the days ahead.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Study what your pressing obligations are and then discharge them in a positive and efficient manner. Precision where detail is concerned is wise. A kind attitude with mate brings right results.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Study the methods of an associate and then you will know how to make the alliance more successful. A puzzling public affair can be clarified easily now. Avoid one who belittles you.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Attend to important work that means so much to your advancement now. Show how efficient you are. Find the right way to improve your health and appearance. Use your own good judgment.

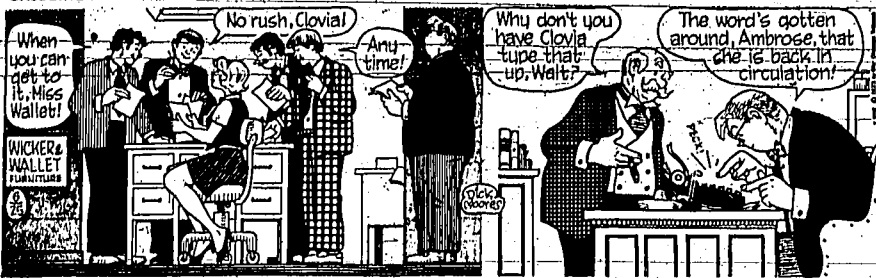

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Plan now for the recreation you need soon and do something constructive about your appearance. More devotion for mate is a must now, if you wish to have harmony. Be more cheerful.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You may find it a bit difficult to get home conditions as they should be, but using willpower works wonders now. Not a good time for entertaining. Don't forget to pay an important bill.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Keep busy at communication matters and then do errands that are expected of you. Handle routine affairs so they go more smoothly for you. Think along constructive lines. Be wise.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY he or she will be one of those delightful young people who never makes a move until something has been thought over at great length. Teach to come to prompt decisions, otherwise your progeny could miss out. Business is the finest media here and education should be directed along such lines, particularly concerning property management—give ethical training early in life. "The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

What's What

L. M. Boyd

It's a fact that only an infinitesimal percentage of all the bigamists in this country are ever discovered. And only an infinitesimal percentage of those discovered are ever punished. And only an infinitesimal percentage of those punished ever serve more than a year in jail. An officer of the law told me that.

Q. "Was it President Richard Nixon, when asked if his ambition was to leave footprints in the sands of time, who said, 'No, I'm trying to cover my tracks?'"
A. That was Calvin Coolidge, President Nixon said. "Now let me make this perfectly clear."

It has been claimed that brunettes have better-looking husbands than do blondes. Client wants to know why, if so. Who can say? Can only repeat the contention of some eyesight experts who believe brunettes in general see better than do blondes.

JOKE BOOK

Earliest known joke book is a little volume called "Scoggin's Jest," thought to have been printed in 1585. Oldest edition still around, however, is dated 1626. This comes up because a customer asks if the famous "Joe Miller's Joke Book" was the first. No, it came out more than 100 years later. In 1739.

Q. "What's decidophobia?"
A. That's supposed to be the fear of making fateful decisions. Numerous old boys who can't bring themselves to propose marriage are said to be decidophobics. Likewise, numerous girls who say yes the first time they're asked so they won't have to make any further decision in the matter. Our Love and War man usually counsels decidophobics to think it over, to consult dear friends, to keep their shirts on, as it were. But his advice doesn't do much good.

HARD FACTS

What few of the many admirers of Abe Lincoln know is that his favorite grub was gingerbread. It's said only one in every 18 girls really likes her given name. Did I tell you that the circumference of an elephant's front foot is just about equal to half the boat's height? The average man, when changing jobs, moves about 1,000 miles. If you've lived exactly 70 years, you've probably produced about 15 pounds of hair.

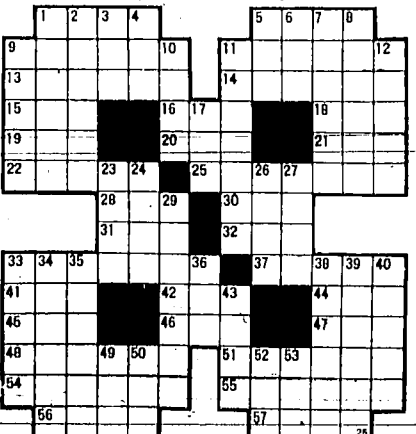

Those students of human mannerisms say the way you walk indicates something about your personality. A man who bobs up and down as he ambles along, for instance, is accused of being a time waster. A woman who does likewise is labeled a gossip. These analyses are suspect. Don't pour them in bronze.

Yes, it's true that considerable baldness in men is caused by various scalp diseases. What's peculiar, though, is the same diseases in women nowhere nearly so often make them bald.

Test Your Job

If "boredom" is the first word that comes to mind when you think of your job, you may be suffering from a malady industrial relations specialists call the "blue and white collar blues."

Some employers are trying to cure employees' blues by replacing hum-drum work routines with programs along the lines of Dow Chemical's "Whole Job."

A "Whole Job" should have three parts. First, an employee should plan at least part of his or her work for himself. The second part is performing the job in a way that lets an employee use his ability and imagination to do the job better. The third is letting employees evaluate their own work, talking over with supervisors the way they think their job should be done.

Try the following test. The results should give you some clues about your real feelings about your job, and what needs to be done to make it a "Whole Job."

- 1 Do you ever avoid talking to your wife or friends about your job because you don't think they'd be interested?
- 2 Is your job less interesting today than it was when you began?
- 3 Do you ever feel that you could do your job blindfolded?
- 4 Do you ever feel like you are just putting in time "clock watching"?
- 5 Do you feel you don't have enough opportunities to make decisions?
- 6 Do you often dread the thought of going to work?
- 7 Does it sometimes seem that you are never able to get to see the boss?
- 8 Do you find that you never think about your job when you're home?
- 9 Do you ever feel that you don't know how well you are doing on your job?
- 10 Could your job be a dead end?
- 11 Do you think parts of your job could be replaced by a machine?
- 12 Do you feel that you haven't enough opportunities to suggest ways of making your job more effective?
- 13 Are you ever confused about what you are supposed to do?
- 14 Are you learning less and less in your job?
- 15 Do you feel that if you left your job tomorrow it could be easily filled and your company's progress would remain unchanged?

If you checked any "Yes" answers, say experts at Dow, you should re-evaluate your job and decide how it might be improved. Then go over your ideas with your employer or supervisor.
